

Education partnership works

School and College federation scheme to be expanded

AN innovative pilot where school sixth formers attend a Further Education and Higher Education college has proved such a success, there are now plans to expand it.

Forty students from The Thomas Hardy School in Dorchester spend a day each week at nearby Kingston Maurward College combining traditional A-levels with specialist vocational qualifications.

This "best-of-both-worlds" learning was launched in September and now the two institutions hope to build on their partnership by creating sports academies and apprenticeships.

They have already "married" as a soft federation - the first collaboration of this kind nationally between a secondary school and a land-based college.

A soft federation is a formal arrangement under the Education Act 2002 where two or more governing bodies share elements of governance or establish a joint strategic committee with delegated powers. Under these arrangements each school retains its individual governing body.

The aim is to provide high quality tailored post-16 opportunities for youngsters in rural Dorset as an alternative route into employment and/or higher education. Casey O'Donnell, 16, is taking a Level 3 BTEC in Animal Science Diploma at the college alongside traditional qualifications at school. "It's a completely different experience in college and I'm really enjoying it."

BTEC Outdoor Adventure Studies student, 17-year-old Chris Elson, agrees.

"Before I started doing this course I wasn't sure about a career as an outdoor instructor but I'm getting a fantastic insight into this profession that I now know I want to do it."

College principal, Clare Davison, said: "We're looking at our existing Football Academy to see about basing it at the school one day a week.

"We could also create academies for rugby and hockey in the same way, and develop more apprenticeships."

Headteacher, Dr Iain

Thomas Hardy, said: "This innovative highly successful partnership will continue to create new opportunities for students at Thomas Hardy wishing to benefit from the college's expertise.

"The school and college complement each other so well. We can now provide a full programme of courses and opportunities for all the students attending

DEATH NOTICE

KING – Vera Kathleen Rose

Passed away peacefully at Lyme Regis Nursing Home on 20th November 2010 aged 80 years.

Dearest Wife to the late Sydney and much loved Mum to Doug and Colin. Loving Nan to Stuart and Alison and Debbie and Jon and a special Great Nana to Ryan, Jenna-Marie and Matthew and dear Sister to Tony, Pat, Henry, Sylvie and David.

Funeral service will take place at St Michael the Archangel, Lyme Regis on Thursday 2nd December at 2.30pm. Family flowers only please donations if desired to Cancer Research UK c/o A.J. Wakely & Sons 7a Silver Street, Lyme Regis.

THE Reverend Gavin Tyte lives in Uplyme with his wife and children.

At the age of 18, he travelled around the world with just his rucksack. After his trip, he began his work as a music technology teacher at a Higher Education college before training as a vicar in the New Forest.

After becoming an associate vicar in Bath, Gavin and his wife Lucy, worked together to run a successful community cafe helping those who were disadvantaged in Twerton.

In December last year, Gavin decided to move on and felt "God's calling" to come to Uplyme as a vicar.

He is a keen fisherman and angler but perhaps Gavin's greatest success is his music, where from an early age he pioneered and helped transform the beatboxing scene into what it is today.

By Laura Goldsbury Noy

HOW long have you been involved in beatboxing?

I've been beatboxing since I was eight-years-old. I was making drum sounds and doing impersonations before I even knew it existed. It's kind of stuck with me. In the 1990s, beatboxing was off the radar, so me and a few others created a web forum to connect those involved. It grew over time and now has over 60,000 registered members. We organised the world convention in 2003, which was the first time beatboxers all over the world had got together. I created the first audio and text tutorials and then when the internet got faster, created the world's first video tutorials on how to beatbox.

WHAT is the main function of the church in Uplyme?

To help people encounter God and also to help people join in with God's mission of the world. Our strap-line is joining in with the mission of God. God's got a plan for the world he wants us to bless it. He wants us to look after it and he wants us to look out for people. So our invitation is for people to join in with that. That underpins everything we're about. And when we get together, we sing we chat and we pray. We have fun as well. The church is a bunch of people that follow Jesus and are joining in with his mission of the world.

DO you welcome everyone and anyone into your church?

Our Sunday gatherings are very family friendly so all are welcome and all are valued. It doesn't matter if you're young or old; able or disabled and it doesn't matter what age, sex, or sexuality. We try and welcome everybody and let them know that they are loved by God. As Christians we mustn't judge people but love them. There is enough judging going on in the world without us joining in on the act.

WHAT'S the point of churches in a modern multi-cultural society?

Christianity has been in our culture for thousands of years. I think there is still a real connection with Christianity as a lot of people still pray and still believe. But I think the church is behind the times with the way things are done. In a lot of places, the church has become disconnected in the way it does things from culture and has become its own sub culture. It's sad; we should be at the fore front as it's still the largest voluntary organisation.

ARE you still involved in beat boxing now you're a vicar?

I still get asked to judge the UK championships and I still perform fairly regularly. That can be all over the place. Getting the whole royalty treatment as a judge is great. It's like I'm the elder statesman of beatboxing even though I'm only 39. I'm old for that whole scene. The kids coming through now are just amazing.

DO you have any exciting events coming up?

I have my first public beatboxing performance down here, at the Lyme Regis Marine Theatre on the December 9th. I'm beatboxing with a good friend of mine, Hobbit. He was the finalist this year for beatboxing, so he's the second best in the UK. He's at the top of the game, and he's mega in demand. There's going to be some bands playing too so it's going to be a good night. It's £3.50 for under 16's and £5 for adults.

DURING your travels, where was the best place you visited?

New Zealand was really great but I loved the Australian outback the most. I avoided the touristy bit as I hitchhiked most of the way. I saw all the bits you wouldn't normally see. I loved the peace, the quiet, the warmth, the rock and the sand. It was a very barren place but there was something very special about it.

IF you were stranded on a desert island, what three items would you want with you?

I'd definitely have a bible. No, actually I'd have my laptop, because that's got the bible on it already. I couldn't be prized away from my laptop. I'd also like a microphone and a decent sound system. Then at least they'll be some entertainment. I think I'd add some solar panels to power all of it.

He's a jolly good fellow

Dorchester screenwriter is given a peerage

LOCAL writer and actor Julian Fellowes has been appointed to the peerage in the latest list released last week and will sit on the Conservatives bench in the House of Lords.

The 61-year-old who lives near Dorchester, is the creator of the recent, much acclaimed ITV hit costume drama Downton Abbey, and is among a list of 54 working peers named.

He won an Oscar in 2002 for his screenwriting of Gosford Park, and also wrote the original script for the film Young Victoria which was released last year.

He is married to Emma Joy Kitchener who is lady-in-waiting to Princess Michael of Kent.

He was at home earlier this week writing the next series of Downton Abbey when he spoke to View from Dorchester about his delight at receiving the peerage and what role he thought he would take in the House of Lords.

"I was absolutely surprised and thrilled," he said. "It's a relief now it has been announced as it was back at the beginning of September that I was told, but I had to keep it a secret, which was a real test of character.

By Stuart Broom

"It's terribly flattering and I hope I can prove worthy of the title."

It is not clear exactly when Mr Fellowes will take his seat as there are a number of stages of etiquette before The Queen approves his title, but is not likely until the New Year.

Asked about his role as a peer, Mr Fellowes said: "I think it is partly to represent the arts on the Conservative benches, which at present has few representatives, but I hope that it will allow me to highlight some of the different causes for which I am interested.

"For instance I am chairman of Talking Books for the Blind, and with the help of Labour peer Lord Lowe we may be able to move some things forward."

Among other organisations Mr Fellowes is involved with include Age UK and the Joseph Weld Hospicecare Trust for which he is a vice-president.

Age Concern benefits surgery

AGE Concern Dorchester will be holding a benefits surgery.

The surgery will be held in conjunction with the Dorset County Council's Welfare Benefits Team.

The two organisations are working together to provide benefits advice and help to older people in West Dorset.

Surgeries operate on the fourth Thursday in each month between 9am and 1pm at the Age Concern Centre, Rowan Cottage, Prince of Wales Street, Dorchester and will be by appointment only.

The next surgery will be held today (Thursday, November 25th).

To book a place contact (01305) 269444.

Burglary at rugby club

POLICE in Dorchester are appealing for witnesses and anyone with information to come forward following a burglary in the Piddlehinton area.

The incident, in which offenders broke into the Puddletown Rugby Clubhouse at Enterprise Park, happened between 1.45pm on Monday, November 15th and 6.45am on Tuesday, November 16th.

Nothing was stolen.

Police Constable Andrea Watson, of Dorchester police, said: "The offenders have forced entry through a ground floor window, searched inside and then left via a fire exit.

"I am appealing for anyone who witnessed this burglary, and anyone with any information about those responsible, to contact me at the earliest possible opportunity."

Witnesses and anyone with information should contact Dorset Police in confidence on 01305 222 222 or the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111 where mobile phone tariffs may apply.

Road traffic collision

POLICE in Dorchester are appealing for witnesses to come forward following a slight injury road traffic collision in the Grimstone area.

At just before 4pm on Thursday, November 18th, police received a report of a three vehicle collision along the A37 just to the north side of Grimstone and close to the A356 Frampton turning.

A silver Renault Modus, registered to a Weymouth woman, a silver Vauxhall Astra, registered to a Hampshire company, and a red Honda Civic, registered to a Taunton company, were involved in the collision.

The driver of the Renault Modus, a Weymouth woman, sustained cuts to her hand. The driver of the Vauxhall Astra, a Somerset man, sustained bruising and whiplash.

Both drivers were treated at Dorset County Hospital in Dorchester.

The driver of the red Honda Civic was uninjured.

The road was closed until approximately 6pm, while the debris was cleared from the road and the vehicles were recovered.

Police constable Sara Mackay, of Dorset Police's traffic unit, said: "I am appealing for anyone who witnessed this collision, and anyone who noticed the manner of driving of any of the three vehicles prior to the collision, to contact me.

"All calls will be treated in the strictest of confidence."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 01305 222 222.

Bats out of hell on country roads

THANK goodness there is some safety remedial action taking place on the dangerous B3157 coast road between Bridport and Weymouth - used as practice by the look of it for Formula One racing.

I cannot understand though why existing road centre lines at so-called non-hazard locations on this road will be allowed to wear away. There is a great need for clearly marked centre lines on the whole of that road - and, for that matter, on many roads in Dorset.

The majority of drivers seem to drive like bats out of hell on all country roads in the county. The admirable "No excuse" police campaign to catch erring motorists should be concentrated on the speed merchants on our country roads - especially the many narrow roads on which two vehicles can just about pass but with care.

It seems that spacial awareness is not part of many drivers' assets.

Cuts with a 'scalpel not a sledgehammer' pleads fire authority chairman

THE CHAIRMAN of Dorset Fire Authority, Councillor Chris Bulteel, has gone to the top in his bid to blunt the sting of fresh cuts to the emergency service grant.

Councillor Bulteel has appealed to Fire Minister, the Right Honourable Bob Neill, MP, for due consideration of Dorset Fire Service's financial position.

Councillor Bulteel said he hoped the government would conduct cuts with a "scalpel and not a sledgehammer" as fire chiefs plan for the 25 per cent reduction in grant.

In his letter to the Fire Minister, Councillor Bulteel appealed for him to consider "...the dire situation Dorset Fire and Rescue Service (DFRS) now faces as a consequence of a 25 per cent reduction in grant, ... and ironically the perverse impact of good local prudent management and governance in keeping council tax levels and increases below the average."

The letter was sent, following a meeting between the minister, chairman, Chief Fire Officer and Dorset MPs earlier last week where the risks facing Dorset's fire and rescue service were highlighted.

Councillor Bulteel's letter ended: "We are a responsible and well performing authority and service and will do our part to make savings. It is therefore imperative that the Government's strategy of apportioning grant reductions amongst fire and rescue services is conducted with a scalpel and not a sledgehammer and that due regard is given to the current cost level on which fire and rescue services operate, including of course their cost effectiveness and performance."

Magna makes the finals

MAGNA Housing Group's equality and diversity programme, and in particular its work to promote and improve communication with people who are deaf or hard of hearing, won the Dorchester-based organisation a place in the final of the prestigious UK housing awards.

The group did not win the category of "supporting and integrating diversity" – that honour went to Hereford Housing.

"But it was clear from attending the awards ceremony that this national event is huge," said chief executive Graham Colls.

"There were people from all sorts of backgrounds, from all over the country, and it was very inspiring to see the good projects going on elsewhere.

"It was an achievement just to be shortlisted."

Launched in 1997, the UK Housing Awards are hosted by the Chartered Institute of Housing and Inside Housing magazine to recognise excellence in the housing sector.

The awards were presented at a ceremony at the Park Lane Hilton, with guest speaker Fred MacAuley, comedian and radio presenter for BBC Scotland and BBC Radio 4's I Guess That's Why They Call it the News.

Salix Homes won the overall prize for outstanding achievement in housing at the UK Housing Awards for establishing the Salix Homes Customer Senate, a project that leads the way in the move towards resident-led self regulation (RLSR).

Dancers put through their paces

■ MEMBERS of the Juno Belly Dancers are put through their paces by Natasha

NATASHA Player is a remarkable and extremely talented dancer.

Artistic director and choreographer of Z movements, she is an independent dance artist and producer specialising in culturally diverse art forms for performance and education programmes for families, both old and young people, and for new audiences.

Natasha draws on both traditional and contemporary African dance forms, many of which she devises herself, is incredibly energetic, fun and an excellent teacher.

Members of the Juno Belly Dancers took advantage of Dance Afrika, the opportunity to try out dancing to live African music, when Natasha held a one off dance session at the Arts Centre in Dorchester.

As well as learning about various African dance forms from across the continent and the costumes incorporated in the various countries, the ladies were treated to two hours of African dance to some very heady African dance music.

With little time to draw breath, Natasha put them through their paces, sometimes at breakneck speed, fascinating to watch, at times exhausting to execute, but a great deal of fun.

Key to the future

DORCHESTER couple Richard and Claire Budd have joined forces with experts in business, education and fundraising to form a new charity.

Key to the Future will focus on the Grace Secondary School appeal that has raised more than £115,000 to build and fund a school in the remote and war-torn Nuba Mountains of Southern Sudan.

The school opened in May this year after a massive fundraising effort by people across Dorset. Now the charity will focus on helping with the school's annual running costs.

An estimated two per cent of the population in Southern Sudan is educated to a primary school level.

The couple began fundraising after photographer Richard Budd visited the country with the former Bishop of Sherborne Tim Thornton.

"We're so thrilled to get registered charity status and our fellow trustees have a wealth of experience that will help us with our fundraising. Colin Brady is a charity expert, he works for Churches Together in Dorset, Ron Jenkinson is Head Teacher of St Osmund's Middle School in Dorchester and Bob Cottell is the MD of international print management company IPP," said Richard.

The first thing on the fundraising agenda for Key to the Future is the annual Grace Charity Christmas Ball at Kingston Maurward College on Saturday, December 18th.

Tickets are £45 per person and include a glass of bubbly on arrival, a three course meal and entertainment from violinist Nina Garcia, five piece swing band Just Friends and Emergency DJs.

For more information on tickets and menus go to www.GraceSecondarySchool.com or ring Claire Budd on 07854173244.

Women reclaim the night

LAUNCHING Domestic Violence and Abuse Awareness Week, a female only Reclaim the Night March and supper was held on Saturday night to put this vitally important subject firmly in the public eye.

Thursday, November 27th marks International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women, a time to remind society of the devastation that domestic violence and abuse causes to families and the wider community in which we all share and live.

Each and every one of us has a responsibility to help, support and raise awareness of this emotive subject so no person ever has to suffer in silence or hide away from family, friends and neighbours.

It is very easy to ask the question "Is anyone hurting you?" It is not so easy to say "someone is hurting me."

For the first time this year, Domestic Violence and Abuse are working together with WAND to help promote awareness of this subject.

■ MARCHERS prepare to play their way through the streets of the town centre

Following an amazing drumming workshop held in the Corn Exchange, Dorchester and organised by Sharon Stone of Organic Rhythm, the ladies took their message onto the streets of the county town at night.

Amid a great deal of shake, rattle and banging of instruments, this was a fantastically good humoured march, a great deal of fun but with very serious undertones.

The message was well

By Anita Harries

and truly stamped on the town centre streets – domestic violence and abuse will not and must not be tolerated.

The evening ended with soup and a quiz, and the agreement that this should become an annual event with more and more women taking part each year.

Mollie Rennie, Councillor Champion for Domestic Violence and Abuse, said: "No woman should have to suffer in silence. Anyone who needs help can contact the West Dorset Women's Refuge on 01305 262444, a phone number that is manned seven days a week, 24 hours a day.

"It has been wonderful to work in partnership with WAND to present Reclaim the Night, along with all the other domestic violence and service providers who are all here tonight.

"This is just the first of what I hope will become an annual event, growing in stature as the years progress.

"This is a wonderful way to launch the Elimination of Violence Against Women Week. Today has been tremendous fun, and a vote of thanks must go to Sharon Stone who pulled the band together in 30 minutes."

Dorchester congratulates Prince on Royal engagement

TWO Dorchester organisations were among the first to congratulate His Royal Highness, The Prince of Wales when he paid a visit to the county town last week.

Dorchester based Magna was among the first to congratulate Prince Charles when Prince William's engagement was announced last Tuesday.

Magna Careline representatives were able to pass on their good wishes at a special reception with HRH at Poundbury.

Honorary president Leslie Phillips introduced Magna Careline chairman John Strangwick, director Ray Ardrey, general manager Tanya Grant and operations manager Emma Jones to the Prince, who also met representatives of the First Dorset Credit Union.

He was accompanied by dignitaries from Brunel and the Mayor of Atlanta who were taken on a tour of the Prince's development in Dorchester.

Said Tanya: "We had just heard about the engagement so we were able to congratulate the Prince. He said 'it's about time really, they been practising long enough'."

"He was very charming. We were able to tell him about how telecare enables people to stay independently in their own homes. He was also interested in the services we provide for lone workers and witness protection."

Magna Careline moved into new offices at Poundbury earlier this year and this week received the latest accreditation from the Telecare Services Association at its conference in London.

Magna Careline is a telecare monitoring service used by thousands of people across Dorset and beyond, to Plymouth in the west, West Sussex to the east and Wolverhampton to the north.

As well as helping people to retain their independence in their own homes, the service also handles calls for commercial customers to provide business continuity 24 hours a day and offer protection for lone workers.

A group of volunteers from the First Dorset Credit Union were also invited to meet the Prince of Wales in Dorchester, the day that the royal engagement was announced between Prince William and Kate Middleton.

The meeting had been arranged to mark the success of the First Dorset Credit Union during their first 10 years, and to acknowledge the great strides made by its volunteers since starting up in 1999.

Prince Charles was very interested to hear of the work of the credit unions, and of the extortionate rates of interest imposed by doorstep lenders although completely legal at the moment.

He heard about the work being carried out by the First Dorset Credit Union to combat doorstep lenders by providing low cost loans to its members.

He was impressed by the amount of money currently on loan to members, £550,000, and the payout of Christmas Club accounts due at the end of November, a record £35,000.

And he laughed when told the First Dorset Credit Union make a high proportion of loans for weddings, exclaiming that he knew where to come if he needed support next year.

He also spoke of his admiration for the work carried out by the volunteers and wished them well for the future.

Many members of the First Dorset Credit Union will receive a payout from their Christmas Club accounts this year, amounting in total, as already mentioned, to some £35,000.

They have been saving throughout the year and will be able to enjoy Christmas without worrying how to pay for it afterwards.

This is just one of the many services the Credit Union offers its members.

President Richard Thornley said: "It is better to save for Christmas than be faced with paying for it after the event and maybe not knowing where the money will come from."

Many members who in the past have taken out short term loans to pay for presents have decided that putting money aside during the year is a much better option.

Members can start saving for next Christmas from the first week of December.

The cost of joining the First Dorset Credit Union is only £1, and members can put in as little as £1 at a time.

There is no requirement to put money aside on a regular basis so members can save when they have some spare cash.

Tunisian Souk brightens up Dorchester

■ SPECIAL chicken and rice Tunisian style

ALL the colours and aromas of North Africa came to South Street, Dorchester with the arrival of a Tunisian Souk.

Shoppers and visitors to the county town were treated to a whole range of goods from the African continent, with everything from fresh Tunisian olives to linen and jewellery to tempt the passer by.

Dried fruit and nuts, fresh baklava, and sweets joined scarves, beautifully hand painted bowls and plates, ceramics, cookware and natural soaps from Marseille to bring a sense of mysticism to the main street.

And for those who wanted to try some real Tunisian cooking, taste buds were tantalised by halal burgers, potato, chicken and onions, and Tunisian special chicken and rice, all cooked as you watched.

It is lovely to have a taste of different cultures on our streets, and although the weather could have been better, the souk certainly added a touch of colour to some dull November mornings.

■ A PLENTIFUL array of dried fruit and nuts

■ FRESH Tunisian olives tempt the passer by

New business challenge for Karen

MAYOR of Dorchester Leslie Phillips performs the opening ceremony watched by Kerry Robbins, Karen Butler and Jessica Richie

A NEW business has opened in Dorchester with the arrival of Butler and Company to the Tudor Arcade.

Although a hairdresser with over 20 years experience, this is the first business, owner Karen Butler from Bridport, has set up and she is relishing the prospect of running her own salon.

"I like the buzz of Dorchester," she said. "It is a thriving town with a larger population than many of the other towns across the county and I am very much looking forward to the challenge of bringing my business to the county town."

The official opening ceremony, accompanied by the odd glass of champagne, was performed by the Mayor of Dorchester, Councillor Leslie Phillips, who was delighted to welcome Karen and her staff to the town centre and wished them every success for the future.

By Anita Harries

Phil Gordon, BID Director for Dorchester, added his congratulations to this latest enterprise.

"Butler and Company is yet another new business for Dorchester, and I am pleased that the BID was able to help give Karen some added exposure by arranging for BBC's Inside Out programme to come along to witness the latest in a long line of successes for the county town," he said.

"In the current economic climate the fact that Dorchester continues to attract a stream of new businesses shows the confidence people have in the town."

Karen and her two members of staff, Kerry Robbins and Jessica Richie, have created a bright, cheery salon with a real feelgood factor.

A friendly atmosphere greets you as soon as you walk through the door, so if you are thinking of treating yourself to a new hairstyle and a bit of pampering for the festive season, let Karen and her staff work their magic on you and make you feel like a new person.

A night a the museum for friendship club

MEMBERS of the Friendship Club spent an evening of Spooky Storytelling in the Dorset County Museum.

The Friendship Club is a group for people with learning disabilities, helping them make new friends and become more involved in their local communities.

Monthly events are put on in a whole variety of locations including pubs, cafes, nightclubs and cinemas, and to date more than 450 adults with learning disabilities have attended.

In the library at the County Museum, amid the aroma of ancient books and with the lights dimmed, storyteller Pippa Brindley, led an evening of spooky tales to set the spine tingling.

With plenty of opportunity for a spot of audience participation, playing musical instruments, telling jokes and singing songs, the first tale was a traditional story from Scotland, peppered with touches of humour with just a hint of the supernatural.

The second, the tale of the "Man with the Bleeding Finger" was one of those could go on for ever stories where the atmosphere gradually builds until - bang - the punchline has everyone rocking with laughter. With refreshments available in the superb Victorian Gallery, this was a wonderful evening spent in a first class venue, one that was thoroughly enjoyed by all those who took part.

Anyone wanting more information on the Friendship Club can ring Laura Kerr on 07970 240555 or email laura@dorsetpeoplefirst.co.uk.

Going the extra mile

WHEN Nathan Willmington went the extra mile for charity he took it to extremes with a 15,000ft skydive in aid of Weldmar Hospice Trust.

He raised more than £500 from his spectacular effort which saw him skydive solo down to 6,000ft before parachuting safely to the ground at Dunkeswell airfield Honiton.

Nathan said: 'It was such a great thrill and to raise money for Weldmar makes it even more special.'

'My auntie died of cancer in 2007 and my grandfather had died years earlier also of cancer.'

'After my aunt's death it was obvious that cancer was in our family genes and I said I wanted to do more for cancer and hospice charities, so I have been trying to stick to that promise I made.'

'The guys at skydive Dunkeswell are amazing, such professional instructors who teach you thoroughly. If you mess up after the training they give you then there is only one person to blame.'

Nathan has decided that he wants to complete the other AFF jumps and hold a parachutists' licence.

He is also keen to hear from anyone else who is organising fundraising events for cancer charities and would like to help out and take on more challenges.

Pupils celebrate launch of book

LOCAL school children are celebrating seeing their artwork published in a new children's book, Lokesh, written by Community Development Worker Kris Hallett.

Based on real events the story developed as part of the Speak Easy project set up to embrace multiculturalism and help create a better understanding of the different cultures within the local community.

Local resident Khalique Miah was the victim of a racist attack. Wanting to bring together the community in which he lives, Khalique set up the One World Festival, encouraging interaction and introducing new experiences and activities from across the globe to the residents of Dorchester and the surrounding villages.

The story of Lokesh was devised to take into local schools and demonstrate how a bad situation can be turned around, creating a more positive result.

The story is uniquely written for two age groups, four to six-year-olds and seven to 11-year-olds, and can be read simultaneously to encourage questions and dialogue about the sensitive subject of racism.

Children at Puddletown School took part in art workshops during the summer term to provide paintings and drawings depicting the One World Festival and the activities surrounding it.

Headteacher Viv Burgess said: 'The children really enjoyed taking part and were delighted, and surprised, to receive their very own copies of Lokesh.'

'The book is beautifully written and illustrated, and provides a great opportunity for thought-provoking discussions with the children.'

And two pupils from St Osmund's School in Dorchester, sisters India (11) and Maya Sajno (9) also provided some of the illustrations under the guidance of dad Didier. Didier was the graphic designer who so brilliantly turned the artwork into the visual displays seen in the book.

Children from Charminster School took part in a handwriting competition to produce the Town crier's 'cry'.

Winner Charlotte Ward and runners up Sarah Trott and Toni Mitchell were surprised to receive calligraphy prizes at a recent school assembly from Alistair Chjisholm and Khalique Miah.

Speak Easy obtained funding from the Community Foundation of Bournemouth, Dorset and Poole 'Grassroots Grant' to print a limited run of 400 copies of Lokesh.

These are available as a learning resource for schools, childcare settings, libraries and other organisations who would find the book useful.

Record breaking students graduate from college

■ KINGSTON Maurward College's record-breaking graduates showcasing their hard-earned awards with lecturers

THE largest number of higher education graduates so far in the history of Kingston Maurward College took the long walk to the podium, this week.

More than 50 graduates from five Foundation Degrees and one Full Honours Degree received their hard-earned qualifications at the Bournemouth International Centre. Subject areas covered arboriculture, outdoor adventure management, animal behaviour and welfare, and equine behaviour and welfare.

All the degrees awarded have been validated by Bournemouth University.

Clare Davison, college principal, said: This year has seen the highest ever number of graduates achieving degrees at Kingston Maurward

- more than double from last year. "Our higher education opportunities continue to grow, as does our reputation for providing the highest quality teaching.

"The graduation ceremony is our opportunity to celebrate the success of our students and to acknowledge their effort, enthusiasm and commitment shown throughout their studies."

Every little helps from Tesco

THIS year's Tesco for Schools and Clubs has been yet another resounding success, with many local schools and clubs set to receive new equipment. And to celebrate this achievement, the Dorchester branch welcomed Oliver Letwin MP and five local schools to their store.

In 2009, in direct response to the needs of schools and clubs across the UK, Tesco amalgamated Computers for Schools and Sports for Schools and Clubs to create Tesco for Schools and Clubs, with one catalogue containing thousands of pieces of equipment and resources covering the entire curriculum for primary and secondary school students.

This made it easier for customers to collect the vouchers and easier for the schools and clubs to get what they really need.

From March 1st to May 9th shoppers in the local area received vouchers which they donated to a school or club of their choice.

These organisations were then able to select equipment they needed from the catalogue - anything from paints and canvasses to cricket bats, digital cameras, computer software and recycling bins.

Trevor Henstridge, Store Manager at Dorchester Tesco, said: "Tesco for Schools and Clubs is a scheme that my team are proud to be a part of.

"Thousands of customers have been collecting vouchers to help their local schools and clubs get new equipment, demonstrating exactly what can happen when a whole community gets involved."

Life isn't a dress rehearsal

PROFESSIONALLY Trish Symon has lived the life that many of the young people she works with dream of. However, her success didn't come without sacrifice and it was a road of immeasurable highs and tragic lows.

Having lost both her mother and younger sister to the terminal hereditary illness Huntington's disease, Trish soldiered on constantly moving forward in fear of the life sentence that she had a 50/50 chance of inheriting.

"I always thought of myself a bit like 'Road Runner', with Huntington's disease as the big ugly monster trying to catch me," said Trish.

"I was going hell for leather into life and nothing was going to stop me. I'm not a particularly shy person at the best of times but this made me determined to take every opportunity I could find and I think that probably drove me more than my contemporaries."

Trish's father mysteriously disappeared in 1958, listed as "missing, presumed dead", leaving her increasingly ill mother and elderly grandmother to raise Trish and her sister.

PATRICIA Symon, known as Trish to her friends, has spent a career performing at the highest level on the world's biggest stages. In her career Trish reached a level that many try and fail to achieve and she is now helping prepare Bridport's abundant crop of young talent to follow in her footsteps. Despite a dream career, Trish has had a difficult private life losing both her mother and younger sister to the hereditary illness Huntington's Disease and suffering seven years of abuse at the hands of her first husband. Now preparing for retirement in Loders, Trish shows no signs of slowing down working as Vocal Coach on the latest production from Bridport Musical Theatre Company and producing her own Christmas Cracker show to be performed in Loders next month. She tells TOM GLOVER her story.

"It has left me thinking that people shouldn't waste their talent," she said. "There's no dress rehearsal you've got to do it now because you don't get a second chance and you don't know what's round the corner, so enjoy it."

Raised in Aberdeen in the early 50s, Trish played her first role as a munchkin in a stage production of "The Wizard of Oz" aged four.

Trish was first recognised for her "sweet soprano voice" at age seven, when she played Eliza Doolittle in "My Fair Lady".

Not only gifted musically, Trish was also blessed academically and finished secondary school two years ahead of her peers.

This left Trish with a choice at 16 to train as a music teacher, a cookery teacher or to chase her dream of performing by studying for a performer's diploma in Glasgow.

"My mum never said don't do it and till this day I thank her for that," she said.

"She must have had her reservations, I was so young, going 300 miles away and living in digs but she never said no."

"She came with me to the interview and somehow arranged to pay all fees. I worked part time throughout to help with costs."

At 19 Trish had graduated from Glasgow with two diplomas in performing and in teaching, the equivalent of two degrees.

On the advice of her singing teacher she applied for a scholarship in Italy working with the vocal coach of La Scala, Milan. Despite the language barrier they bonded over their mutual love of music and Trish returned to the UK a year later and joined the Scottish Opera.

When the Scottish Opera faced financial ruin a year later she joined a friend in London and promptly landed a principal role in "The King's Rhapsody", with Russell Grant, shortly followed by a pantomime run playing "Cinderella".

Having realised it was the fun of performance as much as the art of singing she enjoyed, Trish applied for the English National Opera, The Royal Opera House and a role in "Gone with the Wind" at The Drury Lane theatre.

Trish auditioned for all three on the same day and was offered an immediate five-year contract as chorister and junior principle with the Royal Opera House, where she spent the next 26 years.

It was after landing this contract that Trish, now married, discovered her mum's illness. Her mum eventually spent ten years in hospital before dying at the age of 61. Her sister developed the illness even earlier in life and sadly died by suicide at the age of 36.

As well as trying to establish herself at the opera house Trish regularly flew back to Aberdeen to care for her mum and sister, and to make matters worse Trish was also suffering regular abuse at the hands of her violent husband.

Despite the tragedy in her private life Trish loved her new role with the opera house, working with the likes of Luciano Pavarotti, Placido Domingo and Kiri Te Kanawa.

Trish recalls one event which cemented her love in opera.

"I remember touring America for the first time with an opera called Turandot," she said. "A Welsh singer called Dame Gwyneth Jones was playing the lead and she stood up and sang the big aria in rehearsal and everyone just gasped because it just made the hair stand on end. It was like ping pong crystal, just one of those magical sounds. On opening night we did 30 curtain calls and there was a standing ovation for 25 minutes, it was just a huge success.

"None of us forgot it, that was the pinnacle moment when you think I'm so pleased I'm part of this. It makes you feel alive. It's a very satisfying art form to sing, you give of yourself and when it's done properly the audience know it's something special and they give you the accolade which makes you want to do it again and again."

After separating from her first husband after seven years of abuse, Trish met Kenny and remarried in 1978. Despite trying to put him off, fearing the potential fate that hung over her, he persisted saying: "I accept you as you are, you won't get it and we will have a normal life", "he has been an absolute rock," said Trish.

This year, aged 61, on hearing her eldest nephew, 36, has now tested positive with Huntington's disease, Trish decided to take the predictive test and was told it was negative, meaning neither she nor her son and daughter will develop it, 38 years after her mother was diagnosed.

Her love for Kenny was so strong that she even turned down advances from one of the world's biggest opera stars, known to her as "Plastic Domino".

"Placido Domingo had an eye for the ladies," said Trish.

"I was about to run on from the wings and do my solo part, all my colleagues were on the stage and I'm waiting anxiously to go on and then I hear this Spanish voice behind me saying 'good morning

Patricia you are looking particularly lovely today'.

"He said 'I fly to Hamburg tonight, you will come with me, we will make love and you will fly back with me here for rehearsal on Monday morning, what do you say Patricia?'"

"Unfortunately none of us realised that the microphone was on in the prompt corner and the entire theatre heard his naughty proposition. What's worse I just said what popped into my head which was 'I'm terribly sorry I can't, I've got my boyfriend's sausages to cook for his tea!'"

When the Royal Opera House closed for re-development in 1999 Trish began a career in supporting work for TV. Among her various roles Trish has played a bingo hall receptionist alongside Paul O'Grady, a disbelieving audience member in Houdini biopic "Death Defying Acts" and even Pat Butcher's body double in Eastenders.

Three years after leaving the opera house though Trish returned, this time as a professional actress, the only former singer to return as an actress in the opera house's famous history, beating 147 women in her audition for Franco Zeffirelli's production of "I Pagliacci".

At around this time Trish also began her own private vocal coaching business. Through her tuition Trish has worked with West End stars, X Factor contestants and "Grease is the Word" finalist Jennifer Harragay.

Most recently Trish spotted "Camilla Kerlake" on TV, a former student who is now managed by Take That's Gary Barlow and recently appearing in Les Misérables at the o2 arena.

This year Trish moved to Loders with plans of retiring but after watching Bridport Musical Theatre Company's production of "Anything Goes" Trish soon found herself getting back involved with theatre.

"I was blown away by the company," said Trish.

"I could see that they needed a little bit of tuition but the talent was definitely there and I thought I would like to be involved with this in some capacity."

After meeting with company Director, Dave Swaffield, Trish was offered the position of Vocal Coach and has since worked on "Showstoppers" and "42nd Street".

Trish is currently working with the group on "Showstoppers 2" as well as organising her own Christmas show to raise money for the group.

"I wanted to say thank you to Loders village where I now live and give something to the community for welcoming us so warmly, they have been very supportive and helpful."

"A Christmas Cracker" will be something a bit unusual, as we have a swing version of Jingle bells, a sing-along "Sound of Music", a riotous version of good King Wenceslas, quiz and raffle prizes plus refreshments afterwards. I have three terrific singers from BMTC, Richard Chubb, Emma Foulsham and Lauren Glover and I've got the wonderful Terry Lunt as the MC."

"A Christmas Cracker" will be performed on Saturday, December 4th, 2.30pm at Loders Village Hall. Tickets from the Loders Arms, and Jean on 01308 427091. "Showstoppers 2" will be next April, at Bridport Arts Centre.

Young musicians excel at rotary club festival

■ SISTERS Alice and Isla Lamparelli both played the piano beautifully

THE Casterbridge Rotary Club's 13th annual Music Festival got under way with the performance classes held in the United Church, Dorchester.

Promoting the development and enjoyment of music amongst young people, the festival is open to musicians of all abilities up to the age of eighteen who live in, or are receiving their musical education in, the area of the Dorchester Schools Pyramid.

It is not a competitive event but an opportunity to gain confidence in public performance and receive helpful advice from a small team of adjudicators, who provided both written and verbal adjudications.

This year the two adjudicators were David Knight from Dulverton and Peter Standing from Dorchester.

The performance classes were arranged in four age groups and various musical categories covering a wide selection of instruments. These included the flute, piano, trumpet, trombone and cello, and some excellent performances by the young people taking part.

From these performance classes the adjudicators have selected a range of entrants to take part in the Festival Concert, providing a balanced and very exciting programme.

They will select the best performance in each of the four age groups, and nominate the Casterbridge Young Musician 2010.

These awards will be presented by the Mayor of Dorchester, Councillor Leslie Phillips, during the Festival Concert.

The concert will also include a special performance by organist Alastair Simpson, nominated Casterbridge Young Musician in 2009, as well as groups from local schools.

If you would like to go along to the Festival Concert and enjoy some first class musical entertainment, it takes place on Saturday, November 27th in the United Church, Dorchester at 7pm.

There is a £5 admission charge, with festival entrants and accompanied children free of charge, and tickets are available from the Tourist Information Centre in Dorchester or on the door.

In recent years proceeds from the Music Festival have been used to purchase musical instruments for use in Dorchester area schools.

The Casterbridge Rotary Club have assisted the Dorchester Area Schools Partnership in equipping all the first schools with sets of bellplates, providing many youngsters with an early introduction to the benefits of making music together

■ EDWIN Inayat presents a cheque for £200 to Sandra Scott, watched by Paula House of Cheverels Care Home and Sarah Watts and Shirley Guy from Damers First School

Great way to start the day

MR Edwin Inayat, Registered Manager at Cheverels Care Home in Maiden Newton, a part of the Altogether Care Group, presented a cheque for £200 to the Breakfast Club at Damers First School in Dorchester.

Mr Inayat said: "Breakfast is the most important meal of the day. I am very pleased to see that the Breakfast Club at Damers School is playing a positive role in the development of young children and giving them a healthy start to the day.

"We are proud to support the Breakfast Club and will continue to do so in the future."

Paula House, head chef at Cheverels Care Home added: "Having a good breakfast is essential to being active and maintaining concentration, important for learning and developing at school."

The Breakfast Club is held for half an hour before the start of the school day, and as well as having a meal, there are various activities available for the children to take part in. And it is also about choices, the children able to select two items of food and one drink from the breakfast menu. Local businesses are incredibly supportive of this venture. Dorset Cereals make a donation from their range of healthy meals once a term. And the local branch of Sainsburys generously provides the basics of bread, yoghurts, fruit juice, jam and fresh fruit. There is a wonderful atmosphere about the Breakfast Club, set up for those children in need of a little extra help to make their day begin.

Family Support Worker Sandra Scott said: "Children come to us for a variety of reasons. The Breakfast Club helps give them a healthy and more positive start to the day."

Oxfam's special present

THIS year's Christmas Cracker will see the launch of a special project for Oxfam volunteers in Dorchester.

They are raising £1,700 to buy a classroom in Africa. During the year volunteers have been busy raising money including £867 raised by Peter Scaife running in the London Marathon.

Angela Allen, Manager of Oxfam Dorchester said: "The volunteers chose the classroom from the Oxfam Unwrapped gift catalogue.

"They appreciate how lucky we are in the UK with the good education system we have, compared to the lack of resources – buildings, books and teachers in Africa.

"We want to complete our fundraising before Christmas to give a community in Africa a very special present."

If you would like to know more about Oxfam Unwrapped gifts or volunteering with Oxfam Dorchester contact Angela Allen Oxfam Shop Manager on tel (01305) 263590, or e-mail oxfamshop4073@oxfam.org.uk

Hub charity needs volunteers

THE Hub is a day centre in Dorchester for people who are homeless or have been recently housed after living on the streets.

Run by Bournemouth Churches Housing Association, it is open five days a week, and there are now plans to expand all it has to offer.

It is hoped that constructive activity will be provided three days a week for Hub clients who sign up to a genuine commitment to working on their problems and filling in the gaps in their experience.

The aim is to help them move on from being reliant on the help of others to being fully independent.

The Hub will, however, remain an open house for those who are still sleeping rough and for those whose health problems make total independence very unlikely.

Although there is always trained paid staff on duty, a strong volunteer team is essential to keep the Hub running smoothly from day to day.

Their work pattern is changing, and a range of varied skills are required. People are needed to support clients by cooking, shopping and cleaning in the Hub.

Clients require help filling in forms and accessing benefits, and also in developing their self confidence and ability to carry out a whole range of tasks.

People are needed to work on practical tasks with clients to encourage constructive use of their time, and to help them recognise what independence skills they need and support them in developing these. The paid staff also requires assistance in the administrative work of the Hub.

Bournemouth Churches Housing Association runs excellent training opportunities and support for volunteers along with a professional application and induction system.

If you feel you might like to work in the Hub, please ring Ann Macdonald on 07966808832 9am to 5pm Monday to Friday, or Steven Dukes on (01305) 757599 between 10am and 1.30pm.

Donations are also wanted, especially with the colder weather approaching.

Warm hats, gloves and socks, toiletries, toothbrushes and disposable razors, sleeping bags and rucksacks, as well as dog food and vouchers from Peacocks to allow Hub users to purchase their own underwear, are all needed.

Christmas fair for Marie Curie

By Anita Harries

A CHRISTMAS Craft Fair was held in the Village Hall in Martinstown in aid of Marie Curie Cancer Care.

Villagers turned out to take advantage of an early Christmas shopping opportunity and enjoy the many delightful gifts available to buy.

■ A WONDERFUL collection of teddy bears from Topseys Teacup Teds

■ BECKY helps out with the raffle for Marie Curie Cancer Care

Delicious muffins, cup cakes and Christmas cake decorations from Simply Cakes joined homemade jams and preserves to tickle the taste buds. Handmade cards, Christmas tree decorations, candles, cushions, knitted toys, and handbags vied for space with Christmas gift ideas, exquisitely created teddies for every occasion from Topseys Teacup Teds, beautiful jewellery, and that little extra something to suit every pocket.

The Village Blacksmith came along with a whole host of key rings, pendants and decorative ironware, and Usborne Books were there too.

There was something for everyone looking for festive treats and stocking fillers.

A raffle was also held, with all the proceeds going to Marie Curie Cancer Care.

The Martinstown Christmas Craft Fair has grown steadily over the past few years, thanks mainly to Becky Dovey and her friends.

Julia Chapman, Area Fundraising Manager for

Marie Curie, said: "I could do with a hundred Becky's. She is dedicated to raising both money for, and an awareness of, Marie Curie Cancer Care. I would like to give her a very big thank you for all her hard work, especially in making this event such a success. And all the money raised today will stay locally to support the work of Dorset's Marie Curie Nurses, which is an added bonus."

Dreaming of a dry Christmas!

ORGANISERS of Weymouth's Christmas lights switch-on are keeping their fingers crossed the festive tradition of inclement weather will be broken this year.

After suffering torrential rain last year organisers have put emergency measures in place to ensure the town's mayor Councillor Paul Kimber, civic dignitaries and the pantomime cast of Peter Pan stay dry during the switch-on.

The emergency measures on Saturday, November 27th follow a re-routing of the traditional cavalcade path due to the Olympic Transport roadworks.

Weymouth & Portland

Chamber of Commerce Secretary Michel Hooper-Immins said: "Three of the last four switch-ons have been held in the rain."

"Last year's switch-on in Bond Street Square was greeted by torrential rain, so this year Weymouth & Portland Chamber of Commerce have arranged for a double gazebo to shelter the Mayor and guests."

The Mayor and Mayoress of Weymouth, Councillor Paul Kimber and Helen Carr, will lead the switching-on of the Weymouth town centre lights on Saturday, November 27th around 4.30pm, next to the civic Christmas tree in Bond Street Square.

The first citizens will be joined Carnival Queen Natalie Round, Town Crier Doris Eastwood, WPC President Nigel Reed and of course Father Christmas.

The civic party will first switch-on the Christmas tree lights at Brewers Quay at 3.30pm and then the procession of eight vintage cars will leave at 3.45pm, led by the Portland Sea Cadets band.

The cavalcade will move along Trinity Road, crossing the Town Bridge, take in St. Edmund Street, St. Thomas Street, King's Statue, St. Mary Street to Bond Street Square then at around 4.30pm, the lights of the civic Christmas tree in Bond Street Square will be turned on.

The St. Nicholas and St. Laurence School Choir will be singing carols at Brewers Quay from 2.30pm to 3.30pm and then under the Christmas tree in Bond Street Square from 4pm to 5pm.

The procession returns along St. Mary Street, across the Town Bridge, but terminates this year at the council office car park at North Quay.

■ CHRISTMAS in Weymouth is to be launched with a Sparkle by the Rotary Club of Weymouth Harbourside, with singing and walking on water!

On Thursday, November 25th at 6.30pm in the Pavilion Ocean Room, the X-MAS FACTOR singing competition will start-things off.

Around 30 singers will be performing in an X-Factor style competition with a panel of judges which will include this year's Carnival Queen, Natalie Round. The bar will be open so please go along, have a drink and watch the performers. Entrance will be £3 for adults, £2 for children, £1 for seniors. The winners of the categories will appear on stage in New Bond Street at Sparkle Night with one lucky winner receiving a fabulous star prize.

On Sparkle Night itself, on Thursday, December 9th, as well as stalls selling Christmas candles and various other goodies, there will be charity stalls and a range of foods including hog roast, doughnuts, hot dogs, candies, and pizzas cooked in a wood fired oven.

Pitches for stalls are still available to book, visit www.weymouthchristmassparkle.co.uk

There will be carol singers, musicians a bell ringer and of course Santa will be there with his little helpers.

Another main attraction will be the "water walkers", pictured, where kids can have a great time "walking" on water. Snow machines will help to create a seasonal atmosphere.

This is planned to be Weymouth's town centre Christmas event, shops will stay open late for shoppers, parking in council car parks will be free, Boot Hill will be open, and the Rotary Club expects the evening to go with a fantastic Sparkle!

Nutritain Southwest

Nutritrain Southwest's Centre for Health and Wellbeing is celebrating its 1st Birthday.

Originally formed as a Nutrition Training Company, Nutritrain expanded last November to open its Centre at The Jubilee Enterprise Centre.

Over its first year The Centre has grown into a hive of activity and offers a huge range of workshops inc. Dowsing, Herbs for Winter, Managing the Menopause Naturally, Spiritual Development, Crystals, Silk painting, Mosaics, Psychic Supporters and even Singing! Weekly classes include Yoga inc. Pregnancy Yoga, Meditation and Tai Chi.

Owner Claire Whiles said "I am thrilled to work with a team of such lovely professional people who offer such a wide range of therapies that help improve well-being in mind, body and spirit. We have Massage, Reflexology, EFT, Reiki, Crystal Healing, Counselling, Spiritual Readings and of course the Nutritional Therapy and Allergy testing and other holistic therapies that I myself offer"

Claire is also accredited by the Royal Society for Public Health to deliver Qualifications in Nutrition and Health ranging from 1 day level 1 courses to Diploma Level 4 courses, all available to study at the centre. Claire has also written distance learning courses that are studied by students from across the UK.

The Centre has a small but well stocked retail shop selling health foods, supplements, crystals and spiritual items.

If you are looking for a unique gift then come along and take a look in the centre, gift vouchers are available and the recipient can choose what they spend them on, therapies, workshops or in the shop!

So if you want a little bit of Glastonbury in Weymouth – the Centre is the place to visit. Claire and her team look forward to meeting you! Tel: 01305 839394 Visit: www.nutritrainsouthwest.co.uk

Impact Signs

Making an Impact in the Community

WEYMOUTH'S Impact Signs and Print have again been instrumental in sponsoring local community champions in 2010.

With continued support for 8-year old speedway and grasstrack superstar Anders Rowe, Impact provided branded van graphics for the pint-size star who is set for more superstardom for 2011.

Anders, mascot for Weymouth Wildcats, Swindon Robins and Newport Wasps, attends Holy Trinity School in Weymouth, and has raced grass track every weekend since he was six. He won the South West Centre Championship in October 2008 and in October 2009 came 5th in the British Championships.

Continuing on a little league theme, Impact has taken on sponsorship of Weymouth FC Terras Under 8s; the team, with kit supplied by Impact Signs, has been playing incredibly well this season, and is looking forward to further success in the coming year.

Superkart champion Mark Vaughan, owner of Vaughan's Bistro on Weymouth Quay, has taken the karting world by storm in 2010, by winning the International superkart Championships in Assen, Dijon and Silverstone. With Impact Signs kart graphics, Mark and his team, Viper Racing, is keen to up his gain in 2011 with plans to take part in the British and European Championships. Team Viper Racing is also hoping to take part in the Australian Championships at the end of the year.

Impact has also agreed to be a key sponsor for the much-anticipated Xmas Factor at the Weymouth Christmas Sparkle event scheduled for December 9th in the town Centre; Impact will supply branded backdrops, banners and signage for the X-factor inspired events with heats at the Pavilion's Ocean Room on Friday 26th November, and the final on a specially designed stage outside Debenhams on Thursday 9th December. Xmas Sparkle replaces the Victorian Shownight, continuing with the late night shopping, stalls and mulled wine, but this time with the added attraction of the singing competition which is open to anyone age 10 and over. Come and join us...together we can make an Impact!

Courier Excel

COURIER Excel is a Same Day Courier company run by Bridport based Paul Saunders.

Offering a Professional and reliable service to local companies and individuals who have a requirement.

Paul has always worked in a time sensitive environment so understands the need for keeping people informed with good communication throughout the delivery process.

Paul is now launching a NEW London and Home Counties delivery service - offering to deliver items by 9am the next morning if collected by 7pm.

"In my experience customers are increasingly being given tighter schedules to work to so by offering a later collection time it will help take some of the pressure off with the knowledge that their items will be delivered early the next morning"

Bridport Music

BRIDPORT Music is an established family business, which has been trading for over 30 years. On the CD side of the business the shop has built up a reputation for being able to obtain recordings, which people are often unable to find elsewhere. A superior ordering service is offered with most items being obtained within one week.

Bridport Music has built up expertise in tracking down more unusual products. This can take longer but the staff rarely admit defeat. The shop stocks a varied range of CDs and music DVDs - current or new and back catalogue including Rock & Pop, Classical, Jazz, Folk, Blues, Dance, Irish, Country, Reggae, World etc.

The shop also stocks a growing range of musical instruments (guitars, ukuleles, woodwind etc.) and books, audio equipment, Roberts Radios, headphones, batteries, leads, plugs, cables, microphones and even record player styli. It's a real musical Aladdin's cave!

Plenty of Christmas ideas for gifts and we shall be open til 8pm on Wednesday 8th December for Bridport's late night shopping. Come in and browse!

Minor guitar repairs are undertaken - if you have a guitar that isn't playable let us take a look at it for you. Our charges are very competitive. Please contact the friendly staff for further details on 01308 425707.

Great Christmas fun at Dorset County Museum

With everyone starting to think about Christmas, there's no better time to visit Dorset County Museum and see what's on offer in the Museum Shop.

Lots of new lines have been added for the festive season – why not pop in and have a look around? Find gift ideas for all the family from toys and games to china, scarves and jewellery, candles and toiletries and plenty of books with a Dorset theme. Many items are unique to the Museum and it costs nothing to have a browse. The shop will also be open on Cracker Night, Wednesday 1 December.

For an ideal pre-Christmas treat, the concert by Maggie Moone on Saturday 27 November will certainly fit the bill. Maggie appeared on just about every light entertainment television show during the 1980s and 90s including Morecambe and Wise, Des O'Connor and Mike Yarwood, but it was as the resident singer on ITV's Name that Tune that she became a firm favourite. An accomplished all-round entertainer her new concert will be packed full of favourite songs to please any audience. Tickets cost £12.50 and are available now – please phone or come in to reserve yours now.

The Museum is also running two family activities during the Christmas holidays, on 22 and 29 December. The cost is just £3 per child and there is no need to book in advance.

There is always plenty going on in the Museum for families including activities in each gallery plus tours and trails. And don't forget – two children are admitted free with every adult.

Discover your Alter Ego this Christmas and New Year!

Alter Ego of Dorchester and Bournemouth (Westbourne and Ferndown) is an Aladdin's cave of all things fancy dress, and THE place to visit for all your Christmas and New Year party costumes and accessories.

Whatever the occasion, both adults and children will find exactly what they are looking for to make the perfect entrance to any party.

Alter Ego has thousands of costumes for hire, most of them brand new – an exciting range selected from the best of British and continental suppliers. All costumes are fresh and clean, as they are maintained on site as soon as they are returned.

You will find costumes for all periods of history including Medieval, Victorian, and Regency, as well as sixties, seventies, and eighties. Characters are available from film and literature such as Alice in Wonderland, Cruella Deville, Austin Powers, Snow White, Tarzan and Jane, Scooby Doo and hundreds more. They will even tailor make costumes.

Alongside the hire service stand a treasure trove of accessories including packet costumes, wigs, masks, make up, moustaches and everything else.

Alter Ego is the place to visit for all your Christmas and New Year party costumes and accessories.

Dorset's leading letting agent

Our Philosophy: 'Simply, to be the best at what we do'

...and we are succeeding.
Ask our customers.

During the summer we conducted a survey of all current landlords within the Dorset Lettings Group.

Each landlord was asked to rate the company's performance (marks out of 5) based on certain key criteria.

The results across all offices were extremely positive. See graph below.

This is not to say that we are complacent. Our striving for perfection is continuous and we recognise that there are always areas to be improved. However, the survey was very encouraging and it shows that most of the time we get things right.

The best at what we do.....What do we do?

We are a specialist letting agency. We are not an estate agent.

Unlike many estate agents who dabble in letting and property management as a secondary business, or those who turn to lettings when the sales market is flat, letting and property management is Dorset Lettings' core business.

Why does specialising matter?

Letting is a very different business to estate agency.

The letting process is complex and continuous. It is not about securing a quick sale; it is about an on-going commitment to service excellence.

In order to provide this level of service, an in-depth understanding of the industry and the relevant law affecting it is essential. This applies equally to the company and its staff.

Letting involves finding an appropriate reliable tenant, managing often conflicting landlord and tenant expectations and looking after their interests; collecting rent and arrears; managing and maintaining property; administering deposits and dealing with any disputes; issuing notices at the correct time and managing tenancy changes; dealing with all the legal requirements of a property and each tenancy.

The complexity of the service demands qualified, experienced and dedicated staff.

It's our people that set us apart. We have:

- A dedicated owner-manager in every office
- ARLA trained and qualified staff in every office
- Stringent recruitment criteria
- A strong teamwork ethic
- A commitment to training and development
- We have the Investors In People Award

Do not settle for second best. Try Dorset Lettings and see the difference.

Dorset's premier quality fireplace design company

Stone's Fireplaces is a family run business established in 1876, and Dorset's premier fireplace design company. They can accommodate the needs of all homeowners, and are experts in installation in listed buildings, farmhouses and cottages.

Stone's Fireplaces is a traditional company and is dedicated to offering first class service. They specialise in the supply and installation of woodburning and multifuel stoves, gas fires and fireplaces. Stone's Masonry division create and manufacture beautiful bespoke natural stone fireplaces. All work is carried out by their own in-house expert team of installers.

A new addition to their professional services is Stone's Chimney Solutions, which is a full chimney sweeping and maintenance service. The aim is to ensure their clients are safe, using their fires and stoves correctly, using the correct fuels and maintaining their investment. Stone's work to the highest standards and are approved HETAS engineers and members of NACS (National Association of Chimney Sweeps). This is all important as most insurance companies will no longer pay out for claims unless there is evidence that the chimney has been professionally swept and a valid and current certificate of sweeping has been issued.

Call Stone's today for a quality and professional service that you will be happy to recommend to friends.

Green solution to increasing petrol prices

We stock Trek and Giant, mountain, road, hybrid bikes as well as Raleigh children's cycles. These brands are at the forefront of modern cycling technology, ensuring that the bicycle you ride is safe, handles well and is a joy to own.

We specialise in family cycling, we have in stock a wide range of Children's Trailers, Tag-a-longs and child seats and can offer professional fitting advice on child carrying solutions. We will do our best to get you and your family cycling together. You will find one of the largest selections of cycling accessories, clothing, spare parts, helmets, shoes, gloves and components on the south coast in store, and they even have a serving department!

With petrol increasing in price all the time, isn't it time you looked at a folding bike? With improvements in design and materials modern folding bikes are great to ride and fold very easily. Typically most fold in just 15 seconds or less! Then pop it in to its case or cover then hop on the bus or train, a great way to travel. Dorchester Cycles stock a range of folding bikes from Brompton and Giant plus new for 2010 we are now stockists for the Dahon range. Designed in California and with 28 years experience these are great value, good looking and fun to ride. Pop in and see their demonstrator so you can try one for yourself!

Christmas shopping in the heart of Dorchester...

SUPPORTED BY
Dorchester BID

A new word in style for county town

As shop that mixes the work of Dorset designers with the internationally famous names is the latest addition to Dorchester's buoyant retail scene.

Eureka is the second retail venture by entrepreneur Tim Altham, whose business until now has been in supplying quality retailers with stylish stationary and fashion accessories. The first Eureka store opened in September 2009 in Swanage.

Products at the Dorchester store include stationary and accessories from Designers Guild, exclusive brands from Denmark including Greengate and local designer Caroline Tucker. Stationary and ceramics from Cath Kidston and Nora jewellery from Norway (Exclusive to Eureka).

Designers from Dorset are responsible for the shop's lively spread of greeting cards and wrappings, as well as the range of contemporary eco bags which, says Tim, are leading the field in colour and design.

Eureka, Tim says, sets out to offer "an infusion of colour and design, across a whole range of products - as many as possible from Dorset designers."

"We want to support local artists and designers, and we are always happy to talk to them about their ideas."

Eureka is open on Dorchester Cracker night and encourages you to visit to view the wonderful present ideas in stock, including lines of unique men's gifts with a strong nautical theme.

High quality, individual care for your child

Sunny Days provide a highly appropriate experience that complements a child's family. High quality individual care in a group setting, provided by dedicated caring staff in stimulating, safe and secure environments gives children plenty of additional opportunities that are different to their family experiences and add a rich range of challenging opportunities to grow, to learn, and to develop their fullest potential. Parents say they believe that Sunny Days is the best for their children and we strive to live up to that belief. Sunny Day's encourages children to be children, to capture and live their childhood, express their inner music and spirit, to dance and to sing, and to have endless fun,

At Sunny Days children learn to use chalk and crayons, pencils and paints ... Sunny Days supports children to express themselves, their words and their thoughts, their creativity and their imagination. Sunny Days is a place for children to paint the sky, and write "I love you Mum".

magic and laughter every day, and through this freedom to be themselves they learn who they are, and develop a true pride and power of 'me, myself, I'. They embrace themselves and learn their fullest potential and as they go out into the world they continue growing, they give more than they take, and contribute to community. Sunny Days in the heart of West Dorset invites all families to visit. Come along to any of our seasonal events and shoppers crèches.

Best of British!

Afternoon tea at the Old Tea House 'Bring back the traditional English tea time!' 'Relax and make time for tea'.

This is how Country Living Magazine described this tea-house built in 1635. Afternoon tea bridges the divide between young and old, everyone from small children to grandparents enjoys teatime.

The Ritz is unbeatable for its high teas and ambience, but our wonderful tea house is right here on your doorstep in Dorchester waiting to embrace and delight you with the most wonderful home made scones and tea time treats.

There are 2 or 3 tiers to the cake stands, with a selection of finger sandwiches, homemade cakes, eclairs and scones, with tea or freshly ground coffee. There is also tea-cakes, crumpets and homemade soups just waiting to be shared with you, with roast dinners and scrumptious puddings on Sunday. Come along, relax and enjoy one of Dorset's most beautiful and most haunted tea rooms. A warm welcome awaits you so don't hesitate to revive this great British tradition of high, afternoon and cream teas. Best of British!

Boogie Woogie Ben to play special festive gig at the Electric Palace

LOCAL piano legend Ben Waters will be taking time out from his busy international tour to play a special Christmas gig at the Electric Palace on Friday, December 3rd.

This really will be a unique opportunity to see Ben at his strongest, with his full ten piece touring band, including world class musicians from the Jools Holland Rhythm & Blues Orchestra and also Jamie Cullum's band.

Ben started playing piano as a boy and is now one of world's leading boogie woogie and rock'n'roll piano players. Although only 35 he has entertained in festivals, theatres, and clubs for over 20 years, with over 3000 gigs under his belt. Together with his band he has toured the UK, Europe, Scandinavia, Canada, USA, the Middle East, Japan, Australia and the West Indies. Ben's energetic piano driven shows have to be seen to be believed, it really is live music at its best!

Combining the music of his heroes (Fats Domino, Jerry Lee Lewis Amos Milburn etc) with cutting edge original material, Ben Waters has shared the stage with some of the top names in the business, including Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Jools Holland, Ray Davies, Dave Gilmore, Dave Stewart, Shakin' Stevens, Status Quo, The Beach Boys, The Pogues, Leo Sayer, The Teenagers, Chris Jagger, Freddie Star, Screaming Lord Sutch, Shirley Bassey - to name but a few.

Jools Holland talked about Ben when interviewed for Mojo Magazine "Boogie woogie is alive and well! Ben Waters - who incidentally is PJ Harvey's cousin - has got the touch and the feel for it. Half of the secret of boogie woogie is knowing the tempo at which to play and not making things too fast, and Ben really understands that. I saw him years ago and I thought he was great so ended up playing with him. Then he ended up playing at my wedding and very kindly gave me some Albert Ammons sheet music, which is strange because neither he, I nor Albert read music! He's just finished a new record that I haven't heard yet, but he really is a great talent and someone to look out for. He is always playing so do go see him because he is terrific live."

Don't miss the chance to dance the night away to the fabulous Ben Waters joined by some world class musicians for one night only! Tickets are on sale now for £12 from the Electric Palace Box Office 01308 428354 and Bridport Music 01308 425707.

BOOGIE WOOGIE BEN | Local piano maestro Ben Waters

THE KINGS OF SWING

THE Ratpack at Christmas brings a full professional stage show to the Electric Palace for one night only on Friday 10th December, recreating the fun Vegas atmosphere of The Sands in the swingin' 60s with three great singers with class and style, a full orchestra, beautiful show girls and many incredible songs!

The first half sees each artist take centre stage individually - Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr and then old blue eyes, Frank Sinatra.

After the interval the party really kicks into top gear with all three in party mood.

As well as the original Sands tunes, the show also features some of the singers' biggest songs that were written after their years at The Sands. Classic Sinatra with My Way and New York New York and Sammy's signature tune Mr Bojangles.

The show is so slick that the singers are able to be spontaneous and off the cuff, keeping the show fresh with a new performance each and every night. Fun is the name of the game and the audience always leave with a big smile.

Tickets are on sale now for £19 from Bridport Tourist Information Centre either in person or by telephone 01308 424901. For more information see the Electric Palace website www.electricpalace.org.uk

Café Scientifique Bioethics with John Bryant

The moral maze of modern medicine

DORCHESTER ARTS in partnership with The Thomas Hardy School present an evening of bioethical discussion with John Bryant, Professor Emeritus of Cell and Molecular Biology at the University of Exeter this Friday, November 26th.

Modern medicine promises much - 'miracle' cures, freedom from genetic disease, repair of damaged or worn-out tissues - but what about the significant moral concerns?

Genetic selection of embryos and the use of embryonic stem cells provide excellent examples of the issues raised and will be the main focus of discussions.

The event which is free starts at 7.30pm (doors and bar open 7pm) at the Dorchester ARTS Centre.

Family Santa Run

GET off to a running start this Christmas by taking part in Weldmar Hospicecare Trust's first Family Santa Run on Sunday, December 12th following a two mile route around Poundbury. Registration commences at 9am at the Thomas Hardy School, Dorchester with the walk starting at 10.30am after a fun warm up session.

Registration fee: Children under 5yrs, Free (Santa hat provided) Age 5-15yrs £6 to include 3 piece Santa suit and 16yrs and over £10 to include 5 piece Santa suit.

The event has been sponsored by Hearn Group. To register for this fun family event contact Sue Leighton 01305 215320 or download a form at www.weldmarhospice.org.uk/santarun. Weldmar ho-ho-hope that you will join them!

Charity book signing by David Bourne

DAVID Bourne, the author of 'The Three Camels' and 'The Camel of Soloma' will be holding a charity book signing at Waterstone's bookshop in South Street, Dorchester on Saturday December 11th in support of the Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

David will be signing limited, numbered first edition copies between 11am and 3pm.

The 'Camel of Soloma' combines mystery and suspense with wonderful portrayals of a Cornish environment that is both ancient and familiar. Only the bonds of love and friendship hold the characters together until a single, desperate message brings a summons from the past. Compelling drama as events move towards their final, cataclysmic conclusion. Further details from Waterstone's 01305 257123

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

IN October I wrote about the work of American novelist and feminist, Marge Piercy. But there wasn't space to include one of her poems in full so I would like to rectify that this week. The poem is about the memories contained in her mother's button tin. The practice of keeping a jar of assorted old buttons is probably dying out in our modern 'throw-away' world. But, as a child, whenever I lost a button, my mother would always find something similar to replace it with from our button jar.

UNBUTTONING

The buttons lie jumbled in a tin that once held lapsang souchong tea from China, smoky as the smell from a wood stove in the country, leaves opening to flavor and fate. As I turn buttons over, they sound like strange money being counted toward a purchase as I point dumbly in a foreign bazaar, coins pittering from my hand.

Buttons are told with the fingers like worry beads as I search the trove for something small and red to fill the missing slot on a blouse placket.

I carried them from my mother's sewing table, a wise legacy not only practical but better able than fading snapshots to conjure buried seasons.

Button stamped with an anchor means my late grade-school pea coat.

Button in the form of a white

Daisy from a sky blue dress

she wore, splashed with that flower, rouses her face like a rosy dahlia bent over me petaled with curls.

O sunflower hungry for joy who turned her face through the years bleak, withered, still yearning.

The tea was a present I brought her from New York where she had never gone and never would.

This mauve nub's from a dress

once drenched in her blood;

This from a coral dress she wore the day she taught me that word, summer '41, in Florida:

"Watch the clipper ships take off for Europe. Soon war will come to us.

"They will not rise so peacefully for years. Over there they're killing us and nobody cares.

Remember always. Coral is built of bodies of the dead piled up."

Buttons are useful little monuments.

They fasten and keep decently shut and warm. They also open.

Rattling in my hand, they're shells

IN her My Mother's Body collection, Piercy gives us a group of six poems about what she describes as underrated pleasures. This is her number one.

FOLDING SHEETS

They must be clean.

There ought to be two of you to talk as you work, your eyes and hands meeting.

They can be crisp, a little rough and fragrant from the line;

or hot from the dryer

as from an oven. A silver grey kitten with amber eyes to dart among the sheets and wrestle and leap out helps. But mostly pleasure lies in the clean linen slapping into shape.

Whenever I fold a fitted sheet making the moves that are like closing doors, I feel my mother.

The smell of clean laundry is hers.

Jon Amor to play two local gigs

BLUES guitarist Jon Amor has now made the final leap into solo performance with a unique one-man show, and a collection of finely crafted songs which eventually made up the highly acclaimed album "Unknown Soldier". Robert Plant gives his endorsement of Amor's work with a guest appearance on 'Ball & Chain', and the album also features renowned drummer Clive Deamer of Portishead and Roni Size fame.

Jon has followed the successful Unknown Soldier with the latest album "Stories from the Crooked Room", yet again the album is receiving critical acclaim from the music world, including a great review in Maverick magazine by renowned journalist Nick Dalton.

Jon Amor plays at Beach and Barnicott, Bridport on Friday, November 26th at 9pm; and at White Horse, Litton Cheney on Sunday, November 28th at 6pm

BEAMINSTER SINGERS PERFORM ANOTHER OF BACH'S WORKS

FOLLOWING the success of the performance of the St John Passion in the spring, the Beaminster Singers are presenting another of Bach's major choral works, the Magnificat in D Major. This complex and moving piece will be the major feature of the concert at St. Mary's Church, Beaminster, on Saturday, November 27th at 7.30pm. Also included in the programme are Haydn's St Nicholas Mass, Hubert Parry's "I Was Glad" and the Tantum Ergo by Vierne.

The Singers are pleased to welcome back four soloists who are no strangers to the Beaminster audience: Amy Carson (Soprano), Lucie Spickova (Mezzo), Martin Hindmarsh (Tenor) and Callum Thorp (Bass). There will be a professional orchestra and the whole performance will be in the capable hands of Hilary Kenway

Tickets cost £12.00 from the Parish Office, Hogshill Street, Beaminster, or you can order through the website www.beaminstersingers.org. Advance booking is advised as recent concerts have been sold out.

Just A Flying Visit...

DESCRIBED by former Children's Laureate and writer of the West End hit War Horse, Michael Morpurgo as "responsible for some of the most innovative work in British theatre in recent years", Theatre Alibi has a nationwide reputation for imaginative work for families. This autumn the company will be performing A Flying Visit, an exciting new production for five to ten year olds and their families at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, November 27th at 2pm

There's probably no-one alive who hasn't dreamed of having wings. We all imagine what fun it would be to soar above tiny people, matchbox fields and pocket-sized towns. But when Joe wakes up on his birthday with wings where his arms used to be he's far from excited. In fact Joe is so bogged down in his boring life that he doesn't know what to do with wings at all. Luckily his long-lost granddad Popsy turns up out of the blue, sporting a splendid pair of wings of his own. For Popsy, a former RAF pilot, is on a mission. He's come to show Joe the joy of flying and a few more things besides. The pair set off for thrilling sky high adventures and Joe learns that the sky really is the limit.

Action-packed, funny and touching, with highly skilled performers, inventive puppetry, an imaginative set inspired by paper sculpture and beautiful live cello music A Flying Visit will enthral children and grown-ups alike.

Tickets cost £6 for children, £10 for adults, or £28 for a family ticket (four people, up to two adults). For tickets and more information, call the Bridport Arts Centre box office on 01308 424204 or visit the website www.bridport-arts.com

Bookies back Baker for The One Show host job

MATT IS BOOKIES FAVOURITE FOR ONE SHOW | Strictly Come Dancing star Matt Baker has become favourite to take over as The One Show host after Jason Manford quit over his online "flirting" with fans.

Comic Jason, 29, handed in his notice to BBC1 bosses last night, just four months after taking the coveted position after an admission of "saucy" contacts with women over the internet.

Now it has emerged Countryfile host Matt - currently a contestant on the dance competition - will take Jason's place on the show next week and has been ranked as the bookies' favourite to take over the role permanently.

Jason, whose wife is heavily pregnant, said in a statement: "I have decided after careful consideration to step down from The One Show to concentrate on my family and tour commitments."

The BBC said: "We have got nothing to say except that we accept Jason's decision." Corporation bosses were already unhappy about revelations regarding his text messages to a female fan.

Speaking to The Sun, Jason admitted he had "flirted" with 10 or 12 people online which "went over the line with a few".

Bookmaker William Hill has placed Matt as evens favourite to take over. However, the former Blue Peter host could be tied up with his Strictly commitments for another month. He has also signed up to take part in the ballroom contest's live tour which begins in mid-January and continues for four weeks.

Matt will share duties with Chris Evans next week as the BBC works out short-term replacements for the presenter following Jason's decision to quit.

Matt will front the show on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week, while Chris will stand in on Thursday, in addition to his regular Friday role.

DOT TAKES TO THE DANCEFLOOR | EastEnders veteran June Brown is set to become Strictly's oldest ever contestant when she takes to the floor for the show's Christmas special.

June, 83, will be paired with pint-sized pocket rocket Vincent Simone.

She'll be joined by four other celebrities on the show, which for the first time won't include stars who have already taken part.

But the actress admitted that she's worried she won't be able to keep up, saying: "I'm terrified and apprehensive about what I've let myself in for."

"I must be barmy and I'm not sure what's come over me. I just hope I can remember the steps to the routines. I'm looking forward to working with the professional dancers and the other contestants."

The Rt Hon Vince Cable MP and Torchwood's John Barrowman will also be taking part, dancing with Strictly professionals Erin Boag and Kristina Rihanoff respectively. Fern Britton will be dancing with Matthew Cutler while comedian Ronni Ancona is teamed up with Anton Du Beke.

BBC Head of Entertainment and Events, Katie Taylor said: "Building on the success of the current series of Strictly - that has taken us literally to new heights - I am very excited that this year five fresh celebrities are prepared to don their dancing shoes, show us the cut of their cha-cha-chas and delight BBC One viewers for Christmas."

JAMIE MAKES SOUTH PARK APPEARANCE | South Park has poked fun at Jamie Oliver's famous sobbing TV breakdown - by cooking up a teary cameo role.

The episode, to be aired in the UK on Sunday, features Jamie trying to make everyone "healfy" but spending most of the show whimpering and crying. Jamie is captured in comic form covering as part of a spoof cooking show.

The celebrity chef broke down in tears on prime-time TV in America earlier this year as he tried to convert America's fattest city to healthy eating.

Some of the residents of Huntington, West Virginia, refused to eat lettuce and schoolchildren mistook tomatoes for potatoes.

The irreverent hit programme also includes South Park character Cartman dressing up as Gordon Ramsay and inadvertently attracting a professional camera crew to film "Hell's Kitchen Nightmares Iron Top Chef Cafeteria Throwdown Ultimate Cookoff Challenge".

The guise is a ploy by Stan and Cartman to show food-obsessed Randy he is a terrible cook and should put more effort into his relationship with Stan's Mom. The episode, called Crema Fraiche, aired on US TV last weekend.

GREAT OPPORTUNITIES AT AUCTION OF PROMISES

THIS Friday (November 26th) there is a great opportunity for bidders to buy a range of wonderful lots whilst at the same time supporting Dorchester Town Football Club and Julia's House, the club's chosen charity this year.

There are over fifty lots in the club's annual Auction of Promises, ranging from golf days to beauty treatments, and from electrical goods to MOT's.

The action at The Avenue Stadium starts at 7pm and entry is free. The bar will be open and a ploughman's supper will be available.

Annie Greenslade said: "The club would like to say a very big thanks to everyone that has donated a lot or promise. The generosity and support of local business and individuals has been superb."

New Hardy Players bringing "Tess" to Bridport in 2011

FOLLOWING the success of the open air Hardy Play by the New Hardy Players who are based in the Dorchester area, in June this year at the Millennium Green, they will make their return for an early evening performance on June 26th 2011 at 6.30pm.

They will be performing an adaptation of the highly regarded Hardy tragedy, "Tess of the D'Urbervilles". A branch of the D'Urberville family, calling themselves Durbeyfield, has fallen into poverty and the daughter, Tess, is sent to attempt to find employment and recognition with her aristocratic namesakes.

Good and bad suitors change her life which follows a complicated path so well documented by Thomas Hardy. Beaminster, called Emminster in Hardy's novel, features in the story. In 1998 ITV filmed 'Tess of the D'Urbervilles', some in Cerne Abbas, which appeared on our screens.

The adaptation to be presented by the New Hardy Players next year, at the Bridport Millennium Green and various other venues throughout the county, is being written by one of their members, Devina Symes who with several of the other New Hardy Players appear in the recently released film 'From Time to Time', directed by locally based Julian Fellowes and starring Dame Maggie Smith and Timothy Spall.

Colin goes Cockney in London Boulevard

BRITISH crime drama London Boulevard<sup>18</sup> sees a reclusive film star (Keira Knightley) hire a London criminal (Colin Farrell) who was recently released from prison, to be her bodyguard and handyman, and she subsequently falls for him.

Featuring Ray Winstone in a familiar role as a cockney crime boss, Anna Friel as Farrell's sister and Stephen Graham as a detective, and directed by William Monahan (Kingdom of Heaven, The Departed), London Boulevard has all the credentials of the Best of British cinema.

LONDON LOVE | Keira Knightley and Colin Farrell star in London Boulevard

The American<sup>15</sup>, directed by legendary music photographer Anton Corbijn (U2, Depeche Mode, Joy Division), sees assassin Jack (George Clooney) take on one last job - and as you might expect, not all goes to plan.

Alone among assassins, Jack is a master craftsman. When a job in Sweden ends more harshly than expected for this American abroad, he vows to his contact Pavel that his next assignment will be his last. Jack reports to the Italian countryside, where he holes up in a small town and relishes being away from death for a spell. The assignment, as specified by a Belgian woman, Mathilde, is in the offing as a weapon is constructed. Surprising himself, Jack seeks out the friendship of local priest Father Benedetto and pursues romance with local woman Clara. But by stepping out of the shadows, Jack may be tempting fate.

SHARPSHOOTER | George Clooney in The American

ON the assassin theme, Danny Trejo stars in Machete<sup>18</sup>.

The highly skilled Federale Machete (Trejo) is hired by some unsavoury types to assassinate a senator (Robert De Niro). But just as he's about to take the shot, he notices someone aiming at him and realises he's been set up. He barely survives the sniper's bullet, and is soon out for revenge on his former employers, with the reluctant assistance of his brother Padre Cortez (Cheech Marin), who has become a priest and taken a vow of non-violence.

Other notable cast members include Steven Seagal, Jessica Alba and Lindsay Lohan.

IF LOOKS COULD KILL | Machete with his knife collection

LIGHT UP A LIFE AT CHRISTMAS

Weldmar Hospicecare Trust
Caring for Dorset

ON Tuesday, November 30th at Brewers Quay in Weymouth and on Tuesday, December 7th at Joseph Weld Hospice in Dorchester, Weldmar Hospicecare Trust will be holding their 2010 Light Up A Life events. These open air services take the form of a carol service.

At both venues a Christmas Tree will be smothered with tiny lights and during the service the Mayor will perform the official switching on of the lights. Each light representing treasured memories. Everyone is invited to remember their loved ones at this special time and these services have come to mean so much to so many people.

Also, there will be a prayer of remembrance and dedication at their tree during the Parish Carol Service at St Michael the Archangel Church in Lyme Regis which begins at 4pm on Sunday 19th December.

Lights can be dedicated by filling in an application form (below), picking up a form which are in all Weldmar charity shops, or on-line at www.weld-hospice.org.uk or by telephoning 01305 261800.

A minimum donation of £5 per person remembered is requested and each of their names will be recorded in our 2010 Book of Remembrance and all dedications will be acknowledged with a special card. Dedications may be requested until 31st December, 2010 and the Trees will be on view until 5th January, 2011.

All monies raised will go towards caring for Weldmar's patients.

"This is such a positive way to remember loved ones at this special time of year as at the same time it is helping those who need the vital care that Weldmar's medical and nursing staff are able to offer" explained Ruth Burnhill, Weldmar's Director of Nursing.

Caroline Nickinson, organiser of the events said "We are truly grateful to Brewers Quay for their invaluable support of our work by offering us the opportunity to have our Trees on their premises. We also greatly value the support of the Clergy and Parish of St Michael's the Archangel at Lyme Regis"

If Doctor Who did Panto, this would be it!

MIRACLE Theatre Company returns to Bridport Arts Centre this winter with a wacky and vibrant mix of live music, comedy and space-inspired mayhem in its new show, Beauty and the Beast from Mars. Featuring an alien intent on world domination, rocking tunes and a plot inspired by science fiction B movies, Miracle's latest offering is a refreshing alternative to the usual family pantomime.

Blending nostalgia with up-to-the-minute technical wizardry, including real time video animation and live projected backdrops, 'Beauty and the Beast from Mars' is a witty and original take on the classic fairy tale. The 'Beauty' of the title is 'poptastic' singing icon Bobby Beauty, who finds himself hotly pursued by the Beast, evil queen of Mars. Can Bobby stop the Beast and her evil plan to destroy Planet Earth?

Director Bill Scott says: "If you've ever sniggered at the wobbly scenery of an early Dr Who adventure or groaned at a 'Carry On' gag; if you enjoy sci-fi movies like 'Barbarella' or are a fan of British singing sensations Billy Fury and Marty Wilde, then this affectionate send-up of 1960s pop culture will be right up your street. It's all here: groovy space vixens, well-worn jokes, foot-tapping popular songs and dazzling 2D effects!"

With a far-out plot and an array of over-the-top characters, lovers of traditional pantomime will find plenty to enjoy. There's a handsome but soppy hero, a feisty heroine, a beautiful villain and an unconventional pantomime dame, Major Bunty, spearhead of Britain's endearingly hopeless space programme.

Bobby Beauty

And, with live music from Bobby Beauty and his band, the whole family will be rocking along to original 1960s-inspired tunes!

'Beauty and the Beast from Mars' is on at 1.30pm and 7.30pm on Thursday, December 2nd and at 10.00am on Friday, December 3rd. Tickets cost £8 for children, £10 for adults or £28 for a family ticket (four people, up to 2 adults).

Book your Christmas treat now from the Bridport Arts Centre box office on 01308 424 204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com.

Singing the songs of your youth

LOCAL folk musicians y'Strel's Band will be celebrating the last night of their Little Red Book Tour in the intimate atmosphere of the new Gallery at Dorchester Arts Centre this Saturday, November 27th.

Taking a trip back to their schooldays, Helen Coombs and John Bullock entertain the audience with a range of songs they probably have not heard since the school hall; songs suggested by the 'Board of Education' and published in The New National Song Book of 1905.

With dry wit and humorous anecdotes John explores the fascinating and tempestuous history behind these familiar songs.

He says: "Songs anchor our memories in time. I hear a song and can't help but associate it with a specific period - occasionally a specific event - in my life, and the sounds and the smells sometimes come along for the ride with that aural wash of memory."

But what of the songs themselves - what stories could they tell us if we could only sit down with them and hear their tale? John describes the book as like the Tardis, bigger on the inside and able to take us traveling back to the days of our youth.

Get the perfect Christmas gift at Artwave West

AT Artwave West this Christmas there are lots of great paintings for sale that would make perfect gifts. There are charming miniature oil paintings by Mike Bell and vast gestural pastel seascapes by Jeanette Hayes. Also featured are two new graduates; Helen Jones who makes drawings by using pigment on tracing paper and then layering the pages to achieve incredible depth and Alice Jones who has created delicate pencil drawings based on sleep patterns. Both artists have been recently been awarded prizes for 'Drawing' and 'Emerging Artist' at the RWA respectively.

An extra feature to the Christmas Exhibition is a collection of new works by Martin Goold titled, Bruges After Rodenbach. These beautiful pastel drawings based on Bruges are inspired by the texts of the late nineteenth-century Belgian Symbolist poet and novelist Georges Rodenbach. The series uncovers a city behind present-day surface appearance that might easily pass unnoticed. These subtle and intimately scaled works, devoid of human presence and placed outside of any particular time reference, evoke serene contemplative half-remembered places mirrored in still canals. They allow momentary glimpses of the illusory melancholic atmosphere of aged architectural spaces. A calm solitude emerges, and the perception and experience of place is stirred and profoundly questioned.

The Christmas Exhibition runs until December 18th 2010 at Artwave West Gallery, Morcombelake, Dorset, DT6 6DY. Telephone: 01297 489746. Website: www.artwavewest.com, email: info@artwavewest.com Open Wednesday to Saturday, 10am - 4pm or by appointment. Closed throughout January.

Spacious character conversion in idyllic rural location

Symonds & Sampson

PEACEFULLY nestled in the picturesque Marshwood Vale, sits this beautifully presented character conversion. The property was converted some years ago from a cottage with attached barn to this deceptively spacious 5/6 bedroom home. This thoughtfully modernised retreat offers light and airy accommodation including large dual aspect lounge with attractive stone built inglenook fireplace, exposed floor boards and beams. There is a cosy farmhouse style kitchen perfect for family life, leading through to a separate utility area. A further room on the ground floor would make an ideal guest bedroom or study. Upstairs there are four double bedrooms, one single bedroom and two bathrooms. The peace and quiet of this beautiful location can be enjoyed from the enclosed lawned garden. Further benefits include off road parking and oil central heating. The property is available immediately for £1395 per calendar month. To arrange a viewing please telephone Symonds &

Sampson Bridport Lettings Department on 01308 459565. Further details can be downloaded from www.symondsandsampson.co.uk Web Reference 3058.

One double bedroom flat to rent in Weymouth

Situated close to the town centre and the beach, this light and airy ground floor flat comprises of an open plan kitchen living area with one double bedroom and bathroom. There is a small courtyard to the rear and on street parking.

To arrange a viewing please call Andy or Gavin at Ace Lettings

Telephone 01308 800160

A personal, friendly service that you can trust.

Tastefully upgraded bungalow

NO.2 VALLEY View Close, Seaton is a modern detached bungalow which has been tastefully updated by the present owners. This has included upgrading the kitchen and shower room and adding a utility room.

An attractive double glazed front door leads through to the entrance hall which has a double built in cupboard with hanging rail and shelving. The hall then continues on, and a further cupboard contains the combination gas boiler.

The first room you come to is bedroom two, which has a large picture window overlooking the front garden. There is a double built in wardrobe to one corner and along the far wall is a further high quality built in wardrobe with sliding glass doors, hanging rails, shelving and glass fronted drawers. Also off the hall is bedroom one, originally two bedrooms and now redesigned as one, with an added en-suite WC. This bedroom also has built in wardrobes with hanging rails and shelving, a window to the side and a door leading out to a courtyard.

The shower room has recently been updated with full height tiling to the walls, a double shower cubicle with Mira electric shower, wash basin with cupboard below, corner toilet, heated towel rail and two windows to the side.

The kitchen is fitted with modern shaker style units and has space for a gas cooker and a further domestic appliance. A commissioned piece of patterned glass replaces a serving hatch. Off the kitchen is the utility /side porch which has a work surface, space and plumbing for a dishwasher and washing machine and a door to the side. The living/dining room with a contemporary white marble gas fireplace, is situated along the rear of the property making the most of the outlook over the garden. A sliding door opens into the conservatory which is of dwarf wall construction with double glazed units, polycarbonate roof and french doors opening onto the garden.

The garden areas have been attractively designed with minimum maintenance in mind and enjoy a south westerly aspect. The present owners have also upgraded the central heating system and added upvc double glazing and doors.

The property has mains drainage, electricity and gas while the water is on a meter. The council tax band is D and has an asking price of £275,000

Health and weight plan

Sparkle this Christmas

By following one of Cambridge Weight Plan's programmes you can achieve the weight-loss results you want or need — to help you shine this Christmas.

Unlike other weight-loss options, you're never on your own with Cambridge Weight Plan.

You'll have your own Cambridge Consultant who will support you through every step of your weight-loss journey and explain the very real benefits of our flexible programmes.

LYME THROUGH TO FINAL

Below par Beaminster up to second spot

DIVISION ONE CUP - Semi-finals
Lyme Regis Res 3 Millwey Rise 2 aet
A HEADER in the third minute of extra-time from club captain Adam Caddy proved to be the winner in a pulsating cup-tie in the first game of the season to be staged at the Davey Fort this season.

Millwey, on such a fine run of late went into the game as clear favourites, but the Seasiders, boosted by the inclusion of Caddy and fellow eligible first team colleague Matt Laing, were clearly up for the game.

After a goal less first-half it was Lyme who broke the deadlock in the 47th minute when Caddy arrowed a low drive that zipped across Rise keeper Steve O'Brien and in off the foot of the far post.

This sparked a period of chances at both ends. The Seasiders were denied a second when the visitors hacked a goal bound effort off the line. Then Caddy pulled a shot just wide before Lyme keeper Will Meech, who had a sparkling second half, then reacted well to tip over a fierce drive from the talented Sam Dibling.

The it was the turn of Millwey full-back Mike Knight to drill a shot just wide before substitute Ashley Phillips popped up to level in the 65th minute with Lyme claims for offside waved away by referee Nigel Fry.

The hosts wasted a golden chance to restore their lead five minutes later, referee Fry spotted a handball and pointed to the spot. Ally Rattenbury stepped up but O'Brien tipped the full-back's effort onto the upright.

But Lyme didn't have to wait long for their second - and what a goal it was. Teenager Harvey Brimicombe, who had another outstanding game on the right flank, found some space in the penalty area and smashed an unstoppable left-footed effort high up into the right stantion of the goal frame.

Back came the Devonians and Meech stood up well to deny Dibling with his feet in the first of several fascinating duels between the two. The Millwey striker finally got the better of the Seasiders' keeper in the last minute, swiveling to screw a shot on the turn just inside the post to force extra-time.

With light fading referee Fry, with the agreement of both sides, reduced the extra period to 10 minutes each way. Lyme needed just three to finally decide the tie when Caddy headed home Rattenbury's corner kick to the delight of the packed clubhouse end at the 'Fort'.

Millwey went close twice more. Substitute Marc Jenkins headed wide from eight yards when completely unmarked and two minutes from time an almighty goalmouth scramble resulted in the visitors striking the post and having an effort hooked off the line by Laing.

Lyme manager Gerard Hitchcock thought Meech just scraped the MoM award marginally ahead of Laing and Brimicombe

Netherbury 0 Crewkerne Town 1
LYME'S opponents in the Final, scheduled for Monday, January 3rd, will be Crewkerne Town who scraped past last season's runners-up Netherbury.

As with the other semi, the teams trooped off at half-time at 0-0.

A Phil Hussey free-kick was the closest the hosts came to breaking the stalemate. In the end the tie was decided by a free-kick at the other end from Tigers' skipper Jamie Spurdle which eluded everybody and snuck in at the far post.

Afterwards Netherbury manager Andy Loudon, who saw his team fail to score for the first time this season had no complaints, he said: "Fair play to them (Crewkerne) they came with a plan to stop us from playing and they did."

We played into their hands by humping the ball high and long - which is no good at all to Phil and Tim Hussey when they are faced by tall centre-backs such as Crewkerne's

DAISY HUTCHINGS CUP - Round 1
Chard Utd 3 Beaminster Res 4 aet

DIVISION Two table-toppers Beaminster were surprisingly taken to extra time by Chard United, currently fourth in Division Three.

Dan Tolman put the West Dorset side ahead but the hosts leveled before the interval and took a surprise lead with a deflected shot soon after the restart. Josh Hunter made it 2-2 to force extra-time. Dan Pyett edged the visitors ahead in the 97th minute but the plucky Chard side battled back and squared things up again.

Just as thoughts were turning to the lottery of penalties Tolman struck again to book a last 16 home tie with either Forton Rangers Reserves or Winsam United Reserves.

Crewkerne Rangers 4
Waytown Hounds 2

THE tie at Wadham School went with form as Division Two side Crewkerne Rangers saw off Division Four promotion chasers Waytown Hounds.

First-half strikes from Nick Bachrach and Simon Denslow eventually saw Rangers cruising to victory. But the

DOUBLE: Dan Tolman scored twice as Beaminster Reserves edged past Chard United in Daisy Hutchings Cup

IN FORM | Lyme Reserves' keeper Will Meech was in brilliant form in semi-final win over Millwey Rise

Hounds had other ideas and top scorer Matt Read turned neatly before lofting the ball over the keeper for his third goal in as many games and ninth of the season.

But further strikes from Bachrach and Liam Adams killed the fightback and Tom Rutland's late goal was a mere consolation. Hounds' manager Mark Hughes was pleased with his team, he said: "I thought we were the better team in the first-half and deserved to have gone in 1-0 up rather than 2-0 down."

Centre-half Gary Mansfield was Hughes' selection as top dog although full-back Stuart Allan and Mike Whitbread, making progress after recovering from a long-term knee injury, also put in good shifts.

Crewkerne Res 3 Lyme Bantams 2
LYME went into the match at Henhayes with an experimental 4-5-1 line-up with an eye to blunting the Crewkerne free-scoring front line which had plundered 29 goals in their last four outings.

The play worked, to a degree, although a Scott Barry strike gave the Tigers a slender half-time lead. The Seasiders thought they had equalised when Patryk Skibinski netted only for referee Willie Marks to rule the goal out for offside.

There was further controversy on the stroke of half-time when a Crewkerne cross-come-shot appeared to fly into the top corner but referee Marks so "no goal" saying the ball had hit the bar.

Skibinski did grab the equaliser on the hour when he got on the end of a Ben Strong cross and finished with a crisp low drive.

And it got better for Lyme when Ben Morgan sprung the Tigers' offside trap and scuffed the ball home.

Slack marking at the far post presented Barry with the equaliser and Matt Bisgrove finally killed of the Seasiders' third string with an injury time winner.

Top performers for Lyme were Jack Durrant and debutant Rob Greenwood who gave an accomplished performance at right-back.

Hawkchurch Utd 6 Drimpton 4
HAWKCHURCH came from 2-1 down to beat Division Three strugglers Drimpton 6-4.

Dan Morley (2), Stuart Weir, Ollie Pearce, Leo Maguire and Glenn Harding scored for the Hawks with Adam Chant (2) and Steve Dunkerton (2) replying.

PREMIER
Barrington 6 Misterton 3
MISTERTON'S winless start to the season continued when they were beaten 6-3 at Barrington.

Tom Perry (2), Adam Gribble, Alex Thompson, Steve Burke and Mike Crocker (pen) scored for the hosts. The Misterton consolations came from Matt Ward (2) and James Parrott.

Beaminster 5 W & M Chinnock 1
"I'm obviously pleased with the result but definitely not the performance" was Beaminster manager Sean Annetts' verdict on his side's 5-1 victory over premier division new boys West & Middle Chinnock.

The visitors stunned the home support with the opener as the Rainbows stumbled out of the blocks "We were truly awful for the first 20 minutes" said Annetts.

Beaminster eventually snapped into life and Chris Rowsell leveled before goals from Sam Beaton and Dean Newman, his fifth in three games, saw the balance of power firmly with the hosts at the break.

A foul on Sam Beaton allowed Richie Runyard to net number four from the penalty spot and Andy David rounded things off as Beaminster went joint top with South Petherton and Merriott Rovers on 21 points.

Perry Street 2 Farway Utd 3
FARWAY United remain seventh despite a gritty 3-2 win at Perry Street.

The Devonians led 2-0 at half-time through Bradley King and Andy Dymond but Danny Wiseman and Stuart Packer hauled the Mothers level only for Danny Bailey the grab the winner.

DIVISION ONE
Charmouth 1 Ilminster Town Colts 4
"We are improving" said newly appointed Charmouth manager Nick Pomeroy who despite the optimism saw his side slip to their 15th straight defeat.

Goals from Russell and Adam Male before an own goal gave the Robins some hope. "We were onto top at this point but our heads dropped when they scored a third despite the ball clearly going out of play in the build-up" said Pomeroy.

Paul Retter netted a fourth late on to rub salt in the Charmouth wounds. Pomeroy picked out centre-back Simon Smythe and Mark Franklin, returning from injury, as his star men.

DIVISION TWO
Dowlish & Donyatt 7 Pymore 0
PYMORE had a day to forget and were given a seven-goal hiding on the Dowlish slope. The West Dorset side, now without a win in six, even missed a late penalty.

Four-year unbeaten run ends in County town

DORCHESTER RAIDERS U13 2 LYME REGIS 1

LYME Regis under 13s squad tasted league defeat for the first time in four years at the weekend.

The Young Seasiders took an early lead when Alfie Bellworthy converted Matt Watson's cross.

But the hosts were level before the break and netted a winner midway through the second period.

Despite the defeat Lyme remain top of the Dorset division one table, level on points with Bridport and Kingswood - but with a game in hand.

Speed Chess Tournament

BRIDPORT Chess Club's annual speed tournament is scheduled for 7.30pm on Wednesday December 8th at The George Hotel, South Street. It is open to all players; admission is free and a buffet will be provided.

In a speed tournament game each player has 10 minutes on the clock in which to complete all their moves. A win is effected by mate on the board or the opponent running out of time. It makes for an entertaining spectacle as players run short on time and pieces start flying off the board. Non-members are welcome to attend - either as players or interested spectators.

Anyone interested requiring further information should contact Robert on 07815 759006. Bridport Chess Club meet every Wednesday at The George Hotel, South Street, Bridport from 7.30 onwards. New members and visitors of all standards and ages are welcome. See www.bridportchessclub.co.uk for more information.

WEST DORSET FOOTBALL

Magic moments lift Weymouth

Magpies on a roll

WESTON-SUPER-MARE 1 DORCHESTER 3
FA Trophy Round Three - Att: 184

DORCHESTER continued their improved form with a convincing win over a solid Weston-super-Mare side to book themselves a first round FA Trophy home time against St Albans City.

The Seagulls like the Magpies have improved this season, and this was a tricky tie for Ashley Vicker's men but their fighting spirit and resilience once again won the day.

They survived an early scare however when Brett Trowbridge got behind the Dorchester defence but Simon Evans was alert and dealt with the danger.

They took the lead on 13 minutes when Danny Ings set up Steve Devlin who burst through the home defence and held off the challenge of Jamie Laird before firing beyond Lloyd Irish. Irish was the busiest of the keeper's and he did well to cut out Devlin's cross with Jamie Gleeson moving in, before Nathan Walker headed over from a corner.

Dorchester continued their dominance after the break and their chances were enhanced when Simon Gilbert was sent off for a second booking after elbowing Magpies skipper Mark Jermy.

The unmarked Ings should have increased their lead when he volleyed against an upright just before the hour, but he made up for it on 71 minutes firing in off the post from an acute angle after his first shot was blocked.

Ryan Moss gave Weston hope when he diverted Justin Potter's free kick beyond Evans, but made amends by adding a third five minutes from the end; latching on to a poor headed back pass to drive his shot beyond Irish, who then denied the striker with a superb double save before the final whistle.

◆ The Magpies earned a welcome £4,000 for the victory.

WEYMOUTH 3 BEDFORD TOWN 1
Zameretto Premier - Att: 431

WEYMOUTH extended their unbeaten Zameretto Premier Division run to four games to take them to within six points of safety with this win over Bedford Town.

Two magnificent goals sealed the victory but manager Ian Hutchinson will have been simply buoyed by the win, regardless of how it was achieved.

Having collected three draws from the last three league matches, Weymouth needed the boost of a win to stop them losing touch with the other struggling sides and they were set on their way by a Warren Byerley penalty midway through the first half after Stuart Wall clearly handled on the left hand edge of the box. Byerley who has already been successful three times from the spot this season, coolly tucked the ball into the bottom right side corner of Ian Brown's net despite the keeper guessing correctly.

Weymouth had to thank Lewis Ironside early on as he cleared a Craig Daniel from under his crossbar that looked like it might drift in, and it looked after the goal as if Weymouth were gaining the upper hand.

A ten minute delay whilst a replacement was found for a hobbling official appeared to halt the Terras momentum, but if they needed a pick-me-up they got it soon after the resumption with a goal which will live in the memory of everyone that saw it for a long time.

Matthew Wright, on loan from Salisbury City, picked up Byerley's back header and drove between two defenders before lobbing the ball over the head of Eddie Lawley. Cushioning the dropping ball with his forehead he hit a right foot dipping volley beyond Brown and in to the top left-hand corner of the net from 20-yards.

Bedford were glad to hear the halftime whistle and a chance to regroup, and they came out after the break in upbeat mood. Wall almost pulled one back immediately with a header that struck the bar, but it was not long before they halved the deficit when a measured pass from Jamie Cole saw Callum Llewellyn outpace the Weymouth defence before driving under keeper Tom Manley.

To Weymouth's credit they held firm as Bedford went looking for the equaliser although Richard Groves was denied twice in quick succession by superb defending. However with four minutes left he made the game safe for the Terras with a goal almost as exquisite as Wright's.

Controlling a half clearance he outwitted his two markers with a sublime pirouette and drag back before driving a low shot from an acute angle across Brown and just inside the far post.

Bedford to their credit never gave up, and Lewis Whyton came to Weymouth's rescue, steering Jermaine Ivy's effort away from goal after he was presented with an open goal after Nat Peacock had drawn Manley.

Misfiring Bees lose again
BRIDPORT 1 CADBURY HEATH 3

Toolstation Division One - Att: 112
BRIDPORT'S promotion hopes stuttered at St Mary's Field on Saturday when Cadbury Heath scored twice in two minutes just before the half-hour, and a third on the stroke of halftime condemned the Bees to their third Toolstation Western League Division One defeat of the season.

Whilst the second successive loss still sees Bridport maintain third place, the gap between them and leaders Merthyr Town has increased to 11 points, although the Bees have four games in hand.

Manager Trevor Senior switched Chris Clarke to the centre of the defence due to the original unavailability of Chris Senior, although the manager's son was able to make the match at the last moment and took his place on the bench alongside Alan Hill and Tristan Gale.

On a remarkably firm pitch despite all the recent rain, Bridport were by far the better side in the first 25 minutes of the match and looked capable of returning to winning form following their defeat at Almondsbury UWE the week before.

In just the second minute Ryan Dovell was sandwiched by two defenders on the edge of the area as he went for goal, but Dan Wises' free-kick cleared the bar, before Dovell drove his left footed angled shot from 20-yards straight at Heath's keeper Simon Crawford.

Bridport continued to dominate and skipper Darren Lock had a great chance to give them the lead on 20 minutes but drove his shot high over the bar from 10 yards following a corner.

Then almost out of the blue Cadbury Heath scored on 27 minutes with virtually their first effort on goal. Joe Chandler's throw-in from the right found Nick Dyer on the six yard line and he flicked the ball up and turned before delicately volleying the ball wide of Sam Filkins in Bridport's goal.

The goal surprised Bridport and while they were trying to come to terms with it, Cadbury struck again when Filkins' poor clearance under pressure was picked up by Sasha Tong.

His diagonal ball split the Bees defence for Wil de Wet to drive his shot under the keeper into the corner of the net.

Heath were now well in command and Filkins redeemed himself for his previous error by bravely spreading himself to deflect George Boon's shot who had been put through a hesitant defence by Dyer. Tong then went close with an overhead kick that just cleared the bar.

Bridport became frustrated and Matt Condliffe was booked for attempting to scythe down de Wet, fortunately it was unsuccessful but not missed referee Damien Pelka who showed him a yellow card.

Heath sealed the points with a third goal on the stroke of halftime. Tong rode Lock's tackle on the byeline before pulling the ball back to Dyer who beat Filkins with a low shot at his near post.

The second half followed a similar pattern as Cadbury Heath continued to call the shots. The Bees now resorting to long balls instead of their usual crisp passing was easy meat for the visitors who hit them regularly with counterattacks and Tong should have scored from one when de Wet's right wing cross found him all alone 6 yards out but he headed wide.

The Bees attacks rarely troubled Crawford but he had to be alert to turn Clarke's long range drive around the post, before Condliffe's cross-cum-shot landed on top of the crossbar.

Looking to break back into the game Trevor Senior made a triple substitution taking off Lock, Wise and Adam Symes and reverting to a 4-3-3 formation.

With Bridport pushing forward, it left gaps at the back and sub Liam Planter drove wide of the upright before Tong headed wide at the far post with only Filkins to beat.

Dovell then went close to pulling a goal back with a 30-yard angled shot that just cleared the goal frame.

Filkins then foiled Heath with a superb double save, turning Tom Smallman's 30-yard piledriver behind for a corner, before palming de Wet's close range drive over the bar.

He then produced another great stop to deny Dyer after he was put in by Boon.

Bridport finally pulled a goal back in the last minute of normal time when Gale turned on Watts pass to drive beneath Crawford but it was scant compensation.

Cadbury Heath thoroughly deserved their victory with a disciplined display against a Bridport side that once they went behind produced an inept performance that Senior needs to address if his side are to make a promotion challenge.

Ryan Hayer was named Bees man of the display match for another nonstop sterling display, but Bridport failed to match the ingenuity of de Wit and Dyer who were outstanding in a side who themselves could be in the mix come May.

Shane goes nap!

SWANAGE TOWN & HERSTON 3
BRIDPORT RESERVES 8

SHANE Evans scored five as Bridport Reserves hit form after being dumped out of the Dorset Senior Trophy last week.

In a scintillating display of attacking football, the Bees crushed the Swans, who found Evans, who had yet to score this season, in devastating form.

He opened the scoring on 15 minutes when he took advantage of hesitancy between the keeper and a defender to nod the ball over their heads, but the hosts soon equalised from the penalty spot through Anthony Warrington after Lee Cleal had brought down a Swan's player.

Chris Herbst restored the Bees advantage when he deftly chipped the keeper but Warrington equalised, again from the spot, when James Maidment handled inside the area. Evans scored following a corner to see Bridport go in at half-time with a 3-2 lead.

He completed his hat-trick ten minutes after the break with the pick of his goals, a 20-yard chip that left keeper Stuart James rooted to the spot.

Once again Swanage hit back and Lee James reduced the arrears to just one, but that was the end of their scoring as Bridport took control to score four more without reply.

Evans scored with a low drive before beating Stuart James with a header from the edge of the box that looked to be clearing the bar but dipped under at the last moment to complete his nap hand.

Ben Clarke headed home Carl Bulman's cross before Dom McAllister completed the scoring to round off a good team performance for the Bees.

Joint manager Steve Crabb said: "It was a good all round display and it was great to see Shane back on the score sheet. Hopefully it has restored his confidence and he will start scoring freely."

◆ NAP HAND: Shane Evans who scored five in the demolition of Swanage Town & Herston

"However I must pick out Carl Bulman for special praise on the right side of midfield. He goes about his job without any fuss and has not been fully recognised for all the hard work he does, and again today he was excellent."

POOLE BOROUGH U11 1 BRIDPORT 2

THIS fixture had to be switched to Poole at the last minute. Played in wet and windy conditions Bridport might have won by more had two goal bound shots not got stuck in the mud and the woodwork intervening.

Bridport attempted to play football and took the lead through Jake Rowland, before Poole playing the long ball game, equalised.

Rowland added his second and the winner for Bridport whilst a solid defensive performance saw Dane James named man-of-the-match.

Top show for Stracey visit

BRIDPORT Amateur Boxing Club have assembled a strong card for their latest tournament at the Freshwater Holiday Park, Burton Bradstock this Saturday which sees the guest appearance of former undisputed World Welterweight Champion John H Stracey who will address the audience at the start of the evening and also present the trophies.

Besides a number of boxers from the Bridport club, there will be some exciting talent from around the country also performing including two local lads from Weymouth Boxing Club who made their debut for England in the international match against Wales at Redlands on Saturday.

Toby Osmond (15) who was beaten on points in his fight will be taking on Lewie Edmonton for The Golden Ring, Southampton whilst Liam Simpson who won his bout on points will face Sam Smyth from Broad Plains Bristol.

Another anticipated fight is between Lloyd Johnson of Golden Ring and Ben Zacharkiw from Pilgrims ABC, whilst the top of the bill clash will be between England international Richard Tyler from Portsmouth Uni and Willenhall's Craig Sheldon.

Among the anticipated 21 bouts is a 'Skills' bout between two young boxers who have never fought in public before. As the name indicates, the fight will be based on boxing skills with no verdict at the end of the contest.

Head coach Alan Slaney said: "It promises to be a brilliant night of boxing once again. There will be a minimum of six boxers from the Bridport club as well as a host of other top fighters."

"We are extremely grateful to John H Stracey for attending our gala, he was a brilliant boxer and champion and we hope he will inspire some of the boxers on the bill to further their careers as far as they can."

"He will be addressing the audience prior to the tournament, so people need to be in their seats by 7.30pm, as well as presenting the trophies. He will I am sure be pleased to meet the public but I ask them to limit it to times when there is no boxing, such as the interval and at the end."

◆ BRIDPORT bound: John H. Stracey

Stracey will be in Bridport on Friday night at the Lord Nelson, East Street (7 - 8.30pm) where he will sign autographs and be available for photographs with his championship belt available at a cost of £10 each.

Tickets for the tournament are still available on the door at a cost of £15 and food will be available.

Buckler drought continues

IT IS now more than a month since Bob Buckler's stable had a winner but the trainer is optimistic it will soon change writes Stuart Broom.

"Every stable goes through lean periods. There's nothing that you can particularly put your finger on that's the cause, and you have to work through it."

We've had a great run for a couple of seasons or so, only interrupted by a period when a virus swept through the yard, it will come back.

"A lot of our horses have gone up in handicap which obviously makes it more difficult to win races, whilst we've had the odd bit of bad luck, and of course horses and trainer are like anyone; they have their off days."

"But this is part of the magic of training horses, to bring out the best in them."

A good example of bad luck and character was Double Dizzy in the Grand Sefton Handicap Chase over the National course at Aintree on Sunday.

"He is a horse that likes to lead and look after himself. He had a rough time in his prep race at Sandown a couple of weeks ago where he was knocked into, so it was essential to get him out front."

Unfortunately he broke the tapes and whilst he was up towards the front runners after the restart he was a bit reluctant.

I think he has fallen out of love with it at the moment and so we will send him hunting for a while to sweeten him."

Buckler put his hands up to the poor showing of The Sawyer in the Paddy Power Gold Cup Chase at Cheltenham the previous weekend.

"I think his prep race at Exeter two weeks earlier took more out of him than I expected; it was over a slightly shorter trip but it was a fast run race."

Although he didn't show it at home, but as result he was a bit flat at Cheltenham. He has run in races much closer together, sometimes only a few days, and been successful, but maybe the error was this was his first run of the season."

Ethiopia jumped immaculately in a good race at Plumpton where he was conceding almost two stone to two of the four runners, until the last where he got in too close and unseated Nathan Sweeney, whilst a loose horse running across him put paid to Cullahill's chances at Fontwell.

Tiger Breeze found the ground at Exeter much too soft for him and running too freely early on eventually ran out of puff, but shower good signs of improvement for the future on firmer ground.

On the positive side, Ballyegan ran a super race in finishing second in a 2 ½ mile hurdle race at Fontwell. Coming from the back of the field he raced through to finish eight lengths down on the winner.

"He showed improved form and will stay further, and should run off his handicap," said Buckler.

Bridport beaten but encouraged

WEYMOUTH 40pts, WESTBURY NIL

THE visitors faced the slight breeze in the first-half and really could not have got off to a better start. Weymouth received the initial drop out, infringed and conceded a penalty. The kick went wide however and the home side received a further boost when they pushed their opponents off their own ball at the first set scrum.

Weymouth played some good rugby early on and scored a try worthy of any game after some five minutes' play, when Hughes touched down halfway out after some good support play and inter passing had seen the ball pass through a dozen pairs of hands. Peplow, who was to have a good day with the boot, kicked the goal and the home side led 7-0.

Hughes got his second some five minutes later after the Westbury defence had made a bit of a mess of hauling down the ball carrier close in. Peplow again converted and Weymouth were fourteen points to the good after only ten minutes' play.

Westbury then proved that they had not come just to make up the numbers by winning a fair slice of possession during the next few minutes. They did not go anywhere with it though and an abortive penalty kick from long range was the nearest they came to scoring.

Having scored two good tries by moving the ball before contact, Weymouth then began taking it into contact before offloading, and they were not nearly as effective. Westbury got back into the game as a consequence, but their place kicker's radar needed recalibration and he was wide with several kicks at goal by the time the game was half an hour old.

Weymouth scored their third try five minutes before the interval. Having disrupted a Westbury lineout on halfway, they recycled, spread the ball wide and centre, Tom Bell, showed fair pace to get down the outside channel and touch down some ten yards in from touch.

Peplow added the extras from a narrow angle to give his side a deserved 21-point lead at the halfway stage. Westbury were not offering a lot in attack at this stage, being rather lateral in the backs and not having the 'grunt up front' that they have been associated with in recent times.

Weymouth's bonus point try came within ten minutes of the restart. They had imposed some pressure well into their opponents' twenty two and a relieving kick did not find touch. Peplow gathered and, after he had made good ground into the twenty two, the ball was recycled, sent wide and Bell got over for his second of the game. Peplow's conversion kick, taken from close to the posts, was accurate, and put Weymouth well in control.

The remainder of the third quarter really belonged to the visitors, territorially anyway. They took up residence in Weymouth's half, spurned a couple of penalty goal chances, opting to kick to the corner and, although they did not trouble the scoreboard, made a real nuisance of themselves.

In fact the game was nearing the final quarter before Weymouth got back on the attack; and, when they did so, they scored. Their licks carried effectively close to the touchline and managed to keep the ball in play. They then recycled to number seven, Carter who ran strongly, strutting off a couple of tackles, and scored halfway out. Peplow then proceeded to make it five conversions out of five, thus taking the score to 35-0 in home favour.

The final 15 minutes were long ones for Westbury. Their scrum had been under pressure all game and had to survive several scrummages close to their posts. I thought the pushover would come but an infringement by Weymouth caused a reset. They took the heel against the head however and number eight Quick picked up and charged over out wide. Peplow's conversion from the five yard line slid just wide and the game ended with the home side on the attack.

Weymouth played some good rugby, although only in patches. If they had continued to offload before contact as they had contrived to do early on, they would have had their opponents chasing shadows all game. As it was, they tried to pass out of contact and found that to be rather more difficult.

I'm carping a bit here though - They played well and certainly deserved their bonus point win. Weymouth second side were beaten by 34-17 at Oakmedians thirds.

BRIDPORT 15pts, NORTH DORSET 31pts
AFTER their failure to travel to Salisbury last weekend, Bridport's season was really at the crossroads.

Credit to them, however. They rallied and gave the visitors, who are in the division's top flight, problems for the first hour.

Although they had the better of the early exchanges, they fell behind to a penalty goal before the game was five minutes old, but did respond immediately. North Dorset fumbled the restart and, from the ensuing scrum, Bridport's number eight linked with his scrum-half to put full-back Cutting clear. His try remained unconverted but gave his side a 5-3 lead which they increased with an Idris Croft penalty goal a few minutes later.

North Dorset did respond in turn by kicking a penalty just before the game was half an hour old but, just before the halfway stage, pacy winger Ryan de la Hunty, kicked through and won the touchdown race to score by the posts. Cutting duly added the extras and the home side led 15-8 at the halfway stage, and moreover, were good value for it.

The third quarter was evenly contested, with North Dorset chipping away at the home lead by kicking a penalty. Then, on the hour they regained the lead with a converted try, taking the score line to 15-18. Bridport were certainly still in the contest at this stage and, although the visitors kicked a further penalty some ten minutes before the end, Bridport still remained within a score. At this stage however their fitness levels began to be found wanting and North Dorset scored two unconverted tries.

Hopefully this performance will give Bridport the confidence to realise that they can pull away from the relegation area and survive in the Southern Counties League (South). They play both fellow strugglers before the year's end and therefore face a very important few weeks that could have a huge impact on their entire season.

Not such good news for the Bridport seconds who went down 20-9 at Poole.

SHERBORNE 30pts, DORCHESTER 25pts
DORCHESTER seem to regard Sherborne as a 'bogy' team. While I do not give much credence generally to that held opinion, I have to say that they were, seemingly, very much the architects of their own downfall on Saturday last.

With the wind at their backs initially, they started the brighter and took the lead after some fifteen minutes with a Bament penalty goal. Sherborne came back with a converted try however, both made and eventually scored by their lively scrum worker.

Bament had sustained an injury and, although he did kick a second penalty goal to cut the home lead, he had to leave the field. Nevertheless his side took the lead with an unconverted try, scored by Carl Mitchell and, although the home side kicked a penalty goal before the break it was Dorchester who led 11-10 at the halfway stage.

Sherborne to regain the lead with an unconverted try, only for Dorchester to respond when prop Prior powered over and Clifford added the extras. The home side then levelled the scores at 18-18 by kicking a penalty goal, before a moment of complete indecision in the visitors' defence allowed Sherborne a gift wrapped score.

Heads dropped a little at this point and a further home try, converted this time, took Sherborne clear. Credit to Dorchester, though! They rallied, and Miller got over, with the Clifford conversion ensuring the losing bonus point. They would have felt that this was 'The one that got away' however.

The Dorchester second side had a comfortable home win by 45-13 over South Wilts.

FIXTURES 27th November: Bridport v Pool Game; Chard 2nd v Ivel Barbarians 2nd; Chard 3rd v Castle Cary 2nd (away); Crewkerne v Taunton 3rd (away); Dorchester 3rd v Salisbury 3rd; Honiton v Saltash (away); Honiton 2nd v Torquay 3rd; Sidmouth v Culmpton; Sidmouth 2nd v Culmpton 2nd (away); Sidmouth 3rd v Ilfracombe 2nd (away); Sidmouth Colts v Exeter (away); Weymouth 2nd v Blandford 2nd; Weymouth 3rd v Swindon (away).

Rugby extras

Dorchester U16 3

North Dorset 22

GAMES between these two sides have always been hard fought contests with North Dorset just edging it in the victory stakes.

From the kick-off Dorchester failed to collect the kick and the visitors mounted a series of attacks which the home side managed to repel, before North Dorset eventually got a deserved unconverted score with an overlap in the corner. Despite instructions from the Dorchester coaches the home side gave the visitors too much space and could have no complaints when North Dorset extended their lead to 12-0.

At last Dorchester fought back and when the referee played an advantage in North Dorset's 22 to the home side, Chris Lawton clearly touched down; however the referee disallowed it and pulled play back for a Dorchester penalty. The visitors continued to press and scored two more unconverted tries before the break to lead 22-0.

A stern talk at half-time seemed to galvanise the home side.

But despite playing much better Dorchester could not find a way through a resolute visitors defence, the closest they came was when Max Ford knocked on with the try line beckoning, and all they had to show for a great second-half was a solitary penalty.

CRICKETERS CELEBRATE

UPLYME & Lyme Regis Cricket Club is celebrating its 125th anniversary in 2011.

Plans are afoot to produce a magazine reviewing highlights of the club's history over its lifetime. However as well as the history it is proposed that the pages will be enhanced by some of the more memorable anecdotes supplied by the club's members - new and old.

In order to collect these anecdotes and to kick off the 125th year, the club is staging an evening of 'cricketing memories and convivial company'. This will take place in the pavilion on Friday, December 3rd from 7pm.

There will be a well stocked bar, and a finger buffet. It is hoped that an evening in the pavilion will stir old memories and provide new ones. Tickets are £5 a head. Anybody, including ladies, who have an association with the club are very welcome. All those planning to attend should e-mail club chairman Paul Messer on paulandjune@uplyme.com

Beaminster pressure fails to bring success

GILLINGHAM 2 BEAMINSTER 0

BEAMINSTER Ladies hockey team had opportunities to get something out of this Channel Division One game but were undone by two breakaway goals by the home side.

Beaminster travelled with the bare 11 players with stand-in skipper Ali White sidelined through injury, but they made a good start and pressurised the Gillingham defence forcing several short corners, but failed to convert any, in part due to good work from the home keeper.

With Player-of-the-Match Julia May and Danni Donovan controlling midfield, Beaminster had most of the possession, but were hit twice on the break by counter attacks.

Beaminster Social do it again!

BEAMINSTER Social Club retained their Clinker Shield title for the third consecutive year in the 27th annual sports quiz run by Symene Sports Club.

Ten teams competed for the prestigious toilet seat at Symondsburry on Sunday night. But once again it was the Beaminster team of Nigel Walters, Rodney Crabb and his son Sam who took the spoils for a 14th time. The event was hosted by quizmaster Nick Skyrme.

Chidzoy continues winning streak

AUTUMN has seen Dave Chidzoy hit some good form at West Bay Sea Angling Club. He followed up last month's success where he won two competitions by winning the two November fish's to date.

He won the latest Andy Neal Rover by landing 8kg 820g of fish from the Jurassic Pier, West Bay. The competitors enjoyed a calm chilly nights fishing with plenty of whiting and dogfish being caught, and the best venue on the night proved to be West Bay.

Result: 1st Dave Chidzoy 8kg 820g; 2nd Oliver Mears 7kg 205g; 3rd Phil Maggs 6kg 580g
Most Species: PJ Wheeler 5 - pout, dogfish, whiting, rockling and poor cod; Heaviest Fish: Dave Cornick 835g dogfish; Top Lady: Frances Kitchen 3kg 470g

It was a case of déjà vu when he repeated his Thursday Night Abbotsbury victory of last month by winning again.

Sixteen members turned out to fish the match on a bright calm night on a falling tide. Once again plenty of whiting and dogfish were caught, and four cod were landed and weighed in. The top bait proved to be mackerel.

Result: 1st Dave Chidzoy; 2nd Simon Bowditch; 3rd Mark Kershaw; Most Species: Paul House 5; Heaviest Fish: Mark Kershaw 2kg 250g cod.

◆ A report and pictures on the recent Junior presentations will appear next week due to pressure of space.

Weymouth & District Table Tennis League

Springfield C 16 Shipton Gorge C 18

WHEN Eddy Buck lost the first set of the night in three straight to Springfield's number one it was clear that the Gorge were going to struggle.

With two games going to deuce Richard Hill threatened to get on the score sheet but went down 0-3, 0-3, 0-3 and it was left to the dependable Peter Billingham to retrieve the situation with yet another maximum 9 points. Buck managed to regain his form with two wins and Shipton got to the doubles with a slender 15-14 advantage.

The outcome was always in doubt until Billingham and Buck edged in front in the fifth game to gain a 3-2 win and take the match 18-16.

Blake arrows in on medal prospects

WITH the Paralympic Athletics World Championships in New Zealand now less than two months away, Dorchester's Paul Blake is setting a marker for everyone with his training times.

In an exclusive interview with View Sport, Paul who will celebrate his 21st birthday during the event in Christchurch in January, confirmed that he is running under the current T36 class 800m and 1500m world record times in training at Bath University, and that his 400m time ranks him currently fourth in the world.

"Training is going well and my times for the 800m and the 1500m (for which Paul already holds the world record) are quicker than the current world records, whilst my time of 57 seconds for the 400m puts me just outside the medals."

Paul is obviously excited of the prospects of representing Great Britain for the first time when he competes in New Zealand.

His last competitive meeting before the championships is in Berlin on December 18th where he will be competing in the two shorter distances.

In the meantime Paul is in the running for the best performance by a disabled athlete in the Aviva Athletics Awards 2010 which is to be held in Loughborough on December 4th.

It is a public vote and readers with Facebook can support Paul by going to Aviva Athletics and following the link.

Lyme Regis Golf: James gets the bird

THE first Turkey Trot of the year should herald the start of that special time of bonhomie where goodwill is shown to all men.

And so it was with this traditional curtain raiser to the season being held on Sunday 21st. A full starting sheet assured it would be an exciting affair with lots of endeavour, and as the winning post loomed, a little less goodwill. Division 1 was closely contested with two points separating the first three places, Adam White eventually took first place with 38 points, J. Ebdon 2nd. with 37 and G. Williams 3rd. with 36.

Division Two went to a runaway winner shooting 5 better than his handicap, James Lambert destroyed the field with a magnificent 41 points, chasing him in 2nd was S. Priest on 37 with Rob Coombe's 34 giving him 3rd. For the rest there were consolation mince pies and the hope that Santa would be kinder to them.

Junior Stableford: Kai-To Li Won the Junior Stableford with 37 points, G. Yorke and N. Mason both carded 32 to come second and third respectively, Yorke's birdie on the 18th, helping to secure second place on countback.

INSIDE: Dorchester & District Snooker round-up

Ings recall big blow to Magpies

THE NEWS that Danny Ings has been recalled by AFC Bournemouth has stunned the Dorchester Town management as they looked to make a push up the Blue Square Bet South league as well as progressing in the FA Trophy.

The 18-year-old has been on loan at The Avenue for 10 weeks and was not due to return to Dean Court until early December, but an injury crisis at the npower League One club has forced manager Eddie Howe to recall him early, and it was anticipated he would be sat on the bench on Tuesday night when the Cherries hosted Yeovil Town in a league match.

Ings, who is destined for much bigger things, has been a sensation whilst at the county town, scoring seven goals in 13 appearances and receiving number of Man-of-the-Match awards; he was voted Dorchester's Player of the Month for

October.

Manager Ashley Vickers may well feel he was lucky to have had Ings for the last two weeks as his loan extension for a further third month was in doubt because of the situation at the south coast club.

His industry and skills will be sadly missed although it is possible he could return to Dorchester in the New Year when the transfer window once again opens providing Bournemouth's injury problems have receded.

However Ings departure opens the way for the recently re-signed Jamie Mudge to resume his partnership with Ryan Moss.

Mudge formed a formidable strike force with Moss before leaving in early 2009, and has been improving his fitness since returning to the club. He would be the logical replacement for Saturday's home league game with Basingstoke Town.

One of Ings goals came in last Saturday's FA Trophy First Round tie at Weston-super-Mare where he also set up Steve Devlin for the first goal.

The 3-1 victory gives the Magpies a home game against St Albans City on December 11th, a week after visiting the Hertfordshire club for a league match.

Vickers was pleased with his side's victory. "It was a tough game against a decent side who play in a certain way which is very hard to counter; they play with a rotating midfield with three up front.

"We looked at the possibility of changing our formation to counter it, but in the end decided to play our own game and rely on our ability to press them high up the pitch and break them up, and it worked a treat.

"They had one clear cut chance which Simon Evan's dealt well with, and although they put us under some pressure particularly in the first-half, the lads, particularly the likes of Gary Bowles and Nathan Walker, put themselves on the line time and time again, and our willingness to compete was what carried us through.

"It was a phenomenal effort; the lads are very fit. They all do things off their own back to improve their fitness and that has stood us in good stead."

Vickers confirmed there were no injuries following Saturday's game.
